RUPERT MEN ANYOX SMOKER

Jimmie Mitchell Presided and Eddie Criggs Gave Exhibition With Mitts

ANYOX, May 22.—Anyox Mine Club duplicated its success of a couple of months ago when the boys on the hill staged a smoker in the Mine Hall on Monday night last. Memories of the last one were still fresh with a great many, and these thronged the hall, expecting things out of the ordinary and as good a time as they had enjoyed at the previous affair. "Jimmie" Mitchell, already a great favorite with the boys of the Camp, was chairman for the evening, and he did his part to keep things moving one, two, three.

The entertainment began when the Melodians, the miner's own orchestra, played the audience to the benches. Billed as "Buteh" and "Skibby," two husky rock breakers tore into one another with the mitts and out the boys on edge; a new comer, Will Watkins, with a mouth organ followed; then Gawn Moffatt and "Young" Moore milled a bit with the gloves, after which Maxwell Jack rendered two violin solos, being encored; another boxing bout followed, Frank Gordon and George Clark stepping three lively rounds. Next appeared "Tommy" Bagwell, saxophone soloist, who was in fine form for the occasion. The "Alouette" had to be remembered, and "Jimmie" Mitchell led in its singing.

Refreshments were served, after which Bud Sheen, together with his ukulele, made the hit of the evening and had to respond to a number of encores. Cornetist McDougall, of the Melodians, then gave a cornet solo, and had to respond to an encore. "Tedd" Halverson and "Verge" Moore made a good "go" of three warm rounds; Arnscott and Powell also showed to advantage over the same route, while "Eddy" Criggs and "Billy" Reynolds gave the gathering an exhibition of clever boxing.

was a wrestling bout between Stubbs, of the Mine, and Komiski, of the Beach. Komiski had challenged Stubbs and a lot of interest was shown. Stubbs won two straight falls, being the more experienced of the two, the first in seven minutes and the second in three.

Les Lane, chairman of the Mine Recreation Committee, is to be congratulated for this success. Assisting him were Tommy Gilmour, who held the watch; Paddy Ryan, third man in the ring for the boxing; and Billy Reynolds who acted as judge for the wrestling.

Callies were the three half backs and McDougall and the two Mitchells on the forward line.

Tom Jones refereed, George Waugh and A. Clapperton were linesmen and the teams took the field as follows:

Sons of England — J. Hattie; R. Howe and George Kelsey; P. Cameron, A. S. Bales and Dr. E. S. Tait; F. Hodgkinson, H. Hanson, J. Johnson, A. Dickens and J. Farquhar.

Callies — W. Hamilton; H. Hamilton and W. E. Williscroft; J. Harris, S. Currie and R. Woods; A. Mitchell, R. McDougall, W. Mitchell, J. Hamilton and J. Andrews.

CALLIES WIN STUART SHIELD

Final Soccer Game Last Evening Result in Defeat of S. of E. by 4 to Nil

Defeating the Sons of England by a score of 4 to nil, the Callies last night won at least temporary possession of the Stuart Shield. If time permits towards the close of the season it has been agreed that there will be further games set to decide the ownership for the year of this soccer trophy.

The game last night was played before a poor crowd, this being due to adverse weather conditions which also caused the field and ball to be heavy and considerably affected the quality of play.

With the Callies playing down hill, the play in the first half was, generally speaking, pretty even. James Hamilton scored from close in for the Scots. The Sons had several good scoring chances but seeming inability to finish and wild shooting prevented them from taking advantage of them and there was only the one goal scored in the first half.

In the second half the Callies had things pretty well in their own way. The Sons made two or three breakaways but their play was too loose to be effective. McDougall scored from a penalty and repeated shortly afterwards by making an individual run up the field. W. Mitchell scored the fourth and last goal for the Callies. J. Johnson, of the Sons of England team, was injured when he collided with Williscroft and was obliged to leave the field.
