MAKE QUALIFICATIONS FOR TEACHERS HIGHER

That is proposal in Iowa Where Comparison Made With Other Professions

DES MOINES, Iowa, Mar. 19. — Better prepared teachers is the fundamental problem in present day education, Dean W. F. Barr of the college of education of Drake University, declared here recentldy in urging that the National Education Association take steps to place the profession on a higher plane.

"During the last 25 years there has been much talk about better preparation of teachers," Dean Barr said, "but all the agitation has ended in talk, just as many of our great moral issues bring forth nothing better than talk..

"The fact is that school people as a whole, are afraid to take hold of the problem of securing legislation defining minimum educational qualifications of teachers.

"To be a lawyer or a doctor, or to be a minister in the older churches, one must have preparation far beyond anything required for the certification of school teachers. Qualifications now involved in our legal requirements for getting a certificate to teach should be written up by some person with a sense of humor, for they would be screamingly humorous if they were not so tragic.

WALKED THE FLOOR FOR HOURS NERVES WERE SO BAD

Wherever there are people who are troubled with deranged nerves they will find in Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a remedy that will restore the equilibrium of these deranged centres and bring back the shattered nervous system to a perfect condition.

Mrs. W. W. Anthouse, Woodrous, Ont., writes:—"After having a severe attack of bronchitis I was left in a very weak, run-down condition; my nerves were all broken up; could not sleep at night, and would have to get out of bed and walk the floor for hours.

"After using a box of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

I began to feel much better, and after taking a few more boxes I could enjoy my rest as well as I ever did. I always recommend them to all my friends."

SEES GOOD TIMES IN UNITED STATES SOON

Englishmen Visiting America Tell Countrymen of Prospects

LONDON, Mar. 19.—There is a good time coming for the United States, according to Edward Hilton Young, member of parliament for Norwich and a former financial secretary to the treasury, who has just returned from a trip to America.

Americans, Mr. Young says, are perfectly justified in indulging the expectation that they are in for a period of prosperity. They are turning to the old world for the employment of their capital. Many new businesses are being established and and the income from them, to a large extent, is likely to be employed in the old world.

Sir Charles Sykes, woolen mannfacturer of Yorkshire, is another recent arrival from America, who discovered many signs of improvement in most branches of industry during his visit. "The Americans," he declares, "are abundantly justified in their belief that the year 1925 is going to show a great improvement in the trade of the world."

EVEN ARTISTS MUST HAVE MEN AT BALL

Done Without Them For Years But No Other Attraction Now

BERLIN, Mar. 19.—This year's ball of Berlin's women artists marked an important departure from a tradition of 30 years. While formerly it was a festive occasion for women only, the mere male was this year not only invited, but fairly wooed.

When the women artists of the German capital started out in 1895 to arrange an annual costume party, they hit upon the novel idea of limiting it to members of the fair sex. This meant that all women with lithe, graceful figure dressed as men and as such became the dancing partners for the others. The ball enjoyed great popularity among the suffragettes, who pointed out that women were not condemned to wait modestly until some male dancer asked them to have a turn on the floor, but anybody in female attire could unblushingly ask anyone in male garb to dance.

But when the ball was revived for the first time after the war, a year ago, it was found that the modern woman no longer cares to come to a ball of spinsters. Therefore it was decided to invite men this year.

FISHERMEN KNEEL BEFORE LEAVING FOR THE BANKS

LE HAVRE, Mar. 19.— Every year, before the Havre fishermen sail off in their boats to the distant Newfoundland banks, they gather together at Havre to celebrate the feast of their patron saint, St. Peter. This year the presence of the Archbishop of Rouen lent unusual interest to the ceremony. The whole town turned out, and the church of St. Etienne was covered with flags and bunting and glittered with lights. The sailors filed reverently up the aisles, accompanied by their women folk, and the whole congregation, in picturesque Normandy attire, sang hymns and prayed for those who go down to the sea in ships. As part of the ceremony a bluff old master seaman, who had weathered many a storm, came to the rail of the choir and made an address in the rough, poetic language of the seafarers, to which the archbishop replied.

SIX GENERATIONS OF FAMILY ARE ALIVE

Mrs. Odell, 93 Years of Age, Has Great, Great, Great Granddaughter

SASKATOON, Mar. 19—Unique posibly on the American continent, Saskatchewan boasts of a family of six generations. Mrs. Odell, 93, of Hanley, Sask., has a great, great, great granddaughter. Mrs. Odell was married at 16 and the issue from each generation has begun with a daughter, each one of whom has married between the ages of 16 and 18 years. The eldest daughter of Mrs. Odell is 76 years old.

There are 38 grand-children, 45 great grand-children, seven great, great grand-children and a six months' old great, great great, grand-child. Mrs. Odell still reads and sews without the aid of glasses. She claims that her faculties are unimpaired as those of a young girl. Five generations of the family live in Saskatchewan, the other in the United States.

CONDITIONAL

"I don't doubt that my daughter loves you, but can you afford to pay all the little luxuries she is accustomed to?"

"Why yes—that is, if she'll do without the necessities."

"For Sale"

A page of real life. A photo-play which depicts the modern auction block. Just as in ages of the past, women of today are sold to the highest bidders. Then it was frankly called slavery—today it is the struggle for money and social position. Father and mother are the auctioneers, the eligible, rich men of society the bidders. Under the plea of marrying well, girls are literally offered for sale. Everyone should see this startling indictment of modern slavery cloaked in the garments of respectability. Superb dresses and settings. Excellent scenes of Paris. All star cast. Claire Windsor, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Ellis, Tully Marshall, John Patrick, Mary Carr, Vera Reynolds, Christine Mayo and others.
