MEDAL MARKSMAN-George Genereux, 17-year-old sharpshooter who brought Canada its only gold medal at the summer Olympics, shows his dad, an eye-nose-throat specialist, his winning form in their Saskatoon home. The six foot, three-inch marksman started shooting when he was 12 and collected awards when he was 13. He used to accompany his father on shooting trips where he acquired a liking for the feel of a big scatter gun and the thrill of accurate shooting. (CP PHOTO)
