SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "household helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

SUCCESSFUL TEA AND SALE ON SATURDAY BY LADIES OF HOSPITAL

A very successful tea and sale of home cooking was held on Saturday afternoon in the St. Andrew's rooms by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association. The sum of $50.85 was realized to go towards the work that the Auxiliary now has under way in the men's ward.

The affair was in general charge of Mrs. Robert C. Parsons, president of the Auxiliary. In charge of the home cooking table and raffles were Mrs. Frank Dibb, Mrs. Charles E. Kemp and Mrs. Herbert F. Glasssey. Mrs. G. W. MacKay was convener of the tea room and was assisted by Mrs. A. J. Galland, Mrs. D. McD. Hunter, Mrs. G. H. Arnott and Mrs. D. A. Candow. Mrs. Harry Atkins was cashier.

In the course of the afternoon there were piano solos by Mrs. E. P. Kenny and vocal duets by Mrs. L. O. Larsen and Miss C. Jones, Mrs. C. E. Cullen accompanying.

Raffles resulted as follows: Ham, donated by P. Burns, won by Mrs. C. F. Kemp.

Five dollar bill, donated by S. C. Thompson, won by Mrs. John Bremner.

Case of cornflakes, donated by G. W. Nickerson, and chair, donated by George D. Tite, to be raffled later.

WELL KNOWN HAZELTON COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Miss Minnie Horbury became the bride of James Turnbull at quiet ceremony last week.

Hazelton, Jan. 12.—A wedding of much interest throughout the north was solemnized at 8 o'clock last Thursday evening by Rev. T. D. Proctor at the rectory when Miss Minnie Horbury was united in marriage to James Turnbull. The bride was attended by Miss Betty Jaynes and Dr. Petrie was best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the rectory and the couple left for the south on their honeymoon. They will return to Hazelton to take up their residence.

There is perhaps not a better known couple in Hazelton than Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull. For many years, the bride was accountant for the Hudson Bay Co. here and took a great interest and active part in all social affairs. She is the daughter of Thomas Horbury of Cumberland. Mr. Turnbull served with distinction during the war, for many years was with the forestry department and more recently has been an inspector for the Hanson Lumber & Timber Co.

A GOOD WAY TO INCREASE BUSINESS

Many advertising messages fail to attract attention because they are either unattractive or are too stereotyped.

This is the opinion of one of our busiest and most successful business firms—Albert & McCaffery, Ltd. They have succeeded in interesting many new customers in the story of the famous Nanaimo-Wellington coal and since the coal itself lives up to its reputation these customers are coming back daily for more. Nanaimo-Wellington coal is the premier fuel for the fireplace, range and furnace. More heat—less ash—no rock or

MANSON WAY ROAD DIVERTED TO COW BAY PERMANENTLY

Ramp Being Pulled Down and Temporary Road Graded Suitable For Cars

The road at Manson Way leading to the Provincial Government dock has been cut off by the removal of the ramp and the way to get to the dock now is by Cow Bay. From this time on that route will be used.

At present a temporary road has been made for vehicles going to the dock but the permanent road should be completed before the opening of the fishing season when the dock will be once more busy.

LOCAL MAN PRINCIPAL IN PRETTY MARRIAGE

Wedding of Miss Alice Riley and Fred Henning Took Place in Vancouver Last Monday

The following wedding account of interest locally appeared in the Vancouver Province last week: A quiet and pretty wedding was performed at St. Augustine's Church early Monday morning, when Rev. Father Connolly united in marriage Alice Jane Riley, second daughter of Mrs. Alice Riley and the late Robert Riley of this city, to Frederick William Henning of Prince Rupert. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Robert J. Riley, looked charming in an ensemble costume of mandalay brown, trimmed with fur, with which she wore an imported French model hat and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Riley, in a costume of green with hat in corresponding shade. The groom was supported by Frank Scullion. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Louis Voza sang "Until." After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, after which Mr. and Mrs. Henning left on an extended trip to California. They will reside in Prince Rupert.

When in this condition there is only one thing to do, and that is to take Intermediate League, the Colts meet the Grotto in an attempt to at least partially regain league leadership honors which were snatched away from them by the Tobacconists during the latter part of the first half. League leaders, the Elks, and the cellar team, Colts, are to meet in the Senior League.

Now that they have finished their tour of Great Britain winning every game they played, the All-Black rugby team of New Zealand is now on its way to Canada and United States. They will play several games on the other side of the line but, as far as is known now, their only engagements in Canada will be at Vancouver and Victoria. George Russell of this city, in the course of his recent trip to the Old Country, saw the All-Blacks play in London. Mr. Russell is himself an association football enthusiast and is not very familiar with the rugby game, but he could not resist the temptation of seeing this world-famous team in action when the opportunity presented itself.

George Frizzell returned on this morning's train from a business trip to the Skeena River,
