ACTIVE TENNIS SEASON COMING

Good Attendance and Enthusiasm Featured Annual Meeting— W. Cruikshank Re-elected President

Judging from the good attendance and the enthusiasm manifested at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Tennis Club held yesterday afternoon in the city council chamber, there should be an active season at the outdoor racket game this summer.

Officers for the year were elected as follows:

President, W. Cruikshank (re-elected).

Vice-President, E. W. Marentette.

Secretary Treasurer, R. H. W. Bartlett.

Executive committee — the above officers and Miss Caroline Mitchell (re-elected) and Miss Grace Curtin.

Tournament committee—A. H. Carmichael (chairman), Miss Caroline Mitchell and Miss Grace Curtin.

It was decided to hold the annual ball on April 24 and the following committee was named to carry out the affair: A. H. Carmichael (chairman), W. Burgess, J. W. Scott, Walter L. Mackenzie, R. H. W. Bartlett, E. W. Marentette, W. Cruikshank, Miss Grace Curtin, Miss Etanda Marsh, Miss Caroline Mitchell and Mrs. S. P. McMordie.

The Acropolis Hill courts are to be painted and repaired and put in first class shape for the season which, it is anticipated, will open very soon.

This year there will probably be interclub tournaments with the C.N.R. Tennis Club which has just been organized and which proposes to establish its courts in the railway yards.

GIANTS OUT TO WIN PENNANT

Pittsburgh Will Again be Chief Contenders is Prophecy

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. — Unshaken confidence, bolstered by a demonstrated ability to hit hard and often, will carry the New York Giants to another pennant in the National League, their fifth straight, is the opinion of baseball observers.

Pittsburgh, with a remodeled infield and Brooklyn, with a team of much the same calibre as last season's which remained in the panant fight almost to the last through the dazzling accomplishments of Dazzy Vance, premier pitcher, are expected to furnish opposition in the race for first place.

The Pirates, through a trade with the Chicago Cubs this winter, have founded out a youthful combination for the inner defenses, with Neihaus at first base, Grantham at second, Wright at short and Traynor at third. The pitching staff appears to be fully as strong and the outfield remains unchanged.

Chicago Prospects

It is entirely probable, according to followers of the national game, that this same deal will make a contender of the Cubs, with Grimm at first and the veteran, but able Maranville at second. Return of Charley Hollocher, recognized as one of the greatest shortstops in the league, will give the Chicagoans an excellent infield and one that should rank high in batting averages. Wilbur Cooper, a left-handed pitcher, is expected to add strength in a comparatively weak department.

Brooklyn anticipates the return of Jimmy Johnston, an infielder who suffered from an injured knee last season, and will take the field with about the same combination as carried a year ago. Dutch Ruether, once considered a great pitcher, has gone to the Senators of the American league. The Dodgers should finish no better than last year.

St. Louis and Cincinnati

The St. Louis Cardinals are rather widely favored to lead the second division when the final results are assembled, with Cincinnati offering an interesting battle for the place. Manager Jack Hendricks has imported a squad of minor league players in his efforts to bolster the Reds' infield and pitching department and may produce the season's surprise.

Philadelphia has reinforced its club, yet seems to have made no material progress, although the results cannot be definitely known until the major league season is under way. The Phillies, managed by Arthur Fletcher, former Giant shortstop, are expected to fight in and out of the cellar with the Braves of Boston, managed by Dave Bancroft. Bancroft succeeded Fletcher as shortstop for the Giants.

SMITHERS WON HOCKEY GAMES

Beat Burns Lake Twice Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings

SMITHERS, Feb. 27.—Smithers won two hockey games this week against the visiting Burns lake team. The visitors put up a good game but the speed of the home players was too much for them. The first game played Tuesday night, just after the arrival of the boys ended 13 to 3 against them and the second Wednesday night was 8 to 3 for Smithers.

The scores however do not represent the play as the games were hard fought and Burns Lake led by their old war horse Imeson was always in the play. The shooting of the Smithers boys was very strong and they always had a man on hand to try for the rebound, most of the goals being made that way. The teams were:

Burns Lake — G. Wood, goal; W. R. Ashford, point; L. Rowat, cover; H. Cassidy, r. wing; R. Commons, l. wing; C. E. Imeson, centre; A. E. Cossack, defence spare and C. E. Partridge, forward spare.

Smithers—P. Hoskins, goal; A. Mutch, point; C. Warner, cover; J. Graham, r. wing; E. Danson, l. wing; K. McKay, centre; L. Raabe defense spare and G. Reuter, forward spare.

After the game on Wednesday night, the visitors were the guests of the Smithers Athletic Club at a dance held in the town hall, and a few enjoyable hours were spent.

Arrangements are being made for another series of games with Prince George, and the plans now call for the locals playing in Prince George on Sunday and Monday, with return games here next Friday and Saturday. As the Smithers team are playing much better than in the former games it is expected that the coming matches will be about the best that have ever been pulled off in the north.

Sport Chat

Tommy Gibbons and Harry Wills, the two outstanding contenders for the world's heavyweight championship, have agreed to meet at the Milk Fund charity bouts in New York next summer. Gibbons agreed to the match some time ago but Wills, through his manager Paddy Mullins, only accepted the terms of the promoters last week. The bout, which will be held in one of New York's baseball parks, will be scheduled for fifteen rounds and it is proposed to match the winner for a title bout with Jack Dempsey providing the champion agrees to fight once more before retiring. The Milk Fund bouts are promoted by a New York newspaper.

A carnival queen contest is being staged at Vanderhoof to raise funds for the establishment of a permanent skating rink there. The contest is being run by the Athletic Association whose program is to keep the rink open till the end of this season; purchase the lumber used at the rink, have the ground levelled and ready for flooding next season. It is expected to have it open at least a month earlier than it was this year. Those enrolled in the carnival contest are: Marjorie Paterson, Emmie Violet Day, Evelyn Smedley, Nora Andros, Ena Campbell, Louise Snell, Charlotte Finney, Muriel Steele, Vina Glover, Laura Maigret, Myrtle Mitchell, Mildred Russell, Mollie Moore, Sadie V. Campbell, Jean C. Edstrom, Emma Silver and Grace McIntosh. Balloting closes tonight and the queen will be crowned at midnight in the course of a grand ball that is to be staged.

Ben Self is working on the talent for the city this season to fill the gaps caused in the ranks of local diamond stars by the departures from the city since last Fall. He expects that he may have something definite to announce in a very short time. In view of the indications that there is to be a good deal of industrial development here this summer, it is expected that it will not be difficult to attract good talent to the city. Ben is taking time by the forelock and already, it is understood, has some good players in line.

Three of the games in the second division billiard tournament last night between the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage and Grotto were played, the Grotto obtaining 420 points to the Cold Storage 412. The individual scores were as follows:

J. May (Cold Storage) 136; W. J. Nelson (Grotto) 150.

S. Darton, 126; S. Suga, 150.

A. S. Bales, 150; J. McDougall 120.

Games of H. Parr vs. J. Beesley and J. Bulger vs. M. Stephens are yet to be played.

DELEGATE TO BOYS' PARLIAMENT REPORTS

Jack Stephens Tells of Work Done at Victoria on Recent Visit

In a clear cut and forceful address Jack Stephens last night gave an account of his stewardship as member for this district at the Boys' Parliament in Victoria just after Christmas. He was chosen here by the Tuxis and Trail Rangers to represent them and last night he met his constituents and told them of what he had done.

Jack stressed the fact that this was not a mock parliament but that real business was carried on by the members. A cabinet of nine was formed of which he became minister of municipalities.

23 Districts

British Columbia is divided into 23 districts and 21 of these were represented. On account of the increase in the movement the number of districts is being increased by eight, four of which are in Vancouver.

The voters for representatives are Tuxis and Trail Rangers of whom there are 44,000 in the Dominion. The member must be a member of the Tuxis organization from 16 to 21 years of age. He must not be addicted to the use of tobacco, liquor, or drugs, and must have a certificate of clean living.

The Parliament decided on re-emphasizing the Three C's: clean living, clean speech and athletics. It also urged extension of community conclave for inter-church sports.

Sex Education

In the matter of sex education, the boys stressed the point that ignorance of the fundamental facts of life were the cause of many mistakes and urged that this be taught in schools by a qualified medical man as had been done in Ontario with success.

It was also decided to add a journalistic badge for the writing of essays for publication.

CLEAN RECORD

MANILA, Feb. 27.—The supreme court of the Philippine Islands started the new year with a clean docket, a record which the court claims has perhaps never been equalled before by a similar body under the American flag. The court is composed of nine members, five Americans and four Filipinos, when the bench is full.
