BATTALION IS A GOOD HOST

Entertains Visiting Instructors on Eve of Their Departure for South

Complimentary to Sergeant Major Youngman and Sergeant Russell, who have been here for the past few weeks giving instruction to members of the North B.C. Regiment, a smoking concert was staged in the armory last night under the direction of sergeants of the battalion. There was a large attendance of all ranks and Capt. G. P. Tinker occupied the chair. Sergeant Major Wright Davies and Orderly Room Sergeant Ernest Unwin were in charge.

The program included selections by the regimental band, solos and community singing. There were also exhibition bouts between R. B. Skinner and Dido Gurvich and George Howe, Chief Petty Officer Kench, R. C. V. N. R. gave an exhibition of sword swinging. Refreshments and smokes were served in abundance.

During the course of the evening, Sergeant Major Youngman responded suitably to the honor that had been done him and Sergeant Russell. He also made complimentary remarks as to the work being carried out by the Regiment.

TOLLGATE PROPOSED TO PAY FOR NEW ROAD

Victoria Picturesque Resort to be Made Available for Visitors

VICTORIA, Feb. 27. — One means of paying for the road from Victoria to the Butchart Gardens at Brentwood is to erect a toll gate at which non-residents would have to pay on their way to visiting the famous resort. The road to that place is at present in bad condition and Saanich people object to paying the cost of rebuilding it. Victoria city is willing to pay part of the cost and the Provincial Government is being importuned to do a share. Failing all other methods the tollgate is suggested.

LIP READING USED BY DEAF PEOPLE

Club in Toronto Formed to Give Instruction to Those Afflicted

One of those comparatively little known organizations which are doing good service in this city is the Toronto Lip-Reading Club, which aims to make life easier for those suffering from a lack of or indifferent hearing, says the Toronto Globe. This club was organized five years ago, and at present has a paid-up membership of about eighty. Through the generosity of the board of education lip-reading instruction is given in the Wellesley Public School every Monday afternoon and every Thursday eveing. No charge is made upon any afflicted one for this teaching, and the instructors and assistants give their services free of charge. In addition there is a club night in the Y.W.C.A. each Monday. At present the officials are drawing attention to their work in the hope of obtaining help from persons who are willing to talk, so that those engaged in studying lip reading may have as varied an experience as possible. It has been noticeable that the same students continue their attendance at the club with unfailing regularity, recognizing as they do the fact that this science is breaking the great silence in their lives.

J. H. Blake, mechanical engineer for the Forest Branch, returned to Victoria on the Prince Rupert this morning after having spent a couple of days in the city.

SOCIETY WOMAN IS NOW BANKER IN LARGE INSTITUTION

Unfortunate in Marriage She Turns to Finance as a Profession

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The remarkable rise in finance of Mrs. William Laimbeer is the chief topic of discussion by New York society. From a society woman who had never done a stroke of work as a wage earner until twelve years ago, she had advanced to a position in the National City Bank of New York where she will be Head of the Women's Banking Department in charge of all business done by the bank with women.

Mrs. Laimbeer assumed a business career after her husband, a Wall Street broker, was killed in an automobile accident on Long Island and the responsibility of caring for her three children was thrust upon her. She began in a position a little above that of a clerkship and steadily advanced to the rank of executive in the first billion dollar commercial bank in the U.S.

A popular debutante as Nathalie Schenck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spotswood D. Schenck, of New York and Newport, Mrs. Laimbeer had many suitors, but her first marriage was with Captain Charles Glen Collins, who served with the British army in the Sudan and Boer Wars. They were married in Monterey, Calif., and spent their honeymoon in Honolulu. They separated later and Mrs. Collins obtained a divorce. A child was born by this marriage.

Captain Collins later had difficulty with the law. He last figured in newspaper dispatches in 1923 when he was acquitted of charges of a gem swindle in Bombay, India.

Mrs. Laimbeer is the first woman to become an officer of the National City Bank. Her rise has broken century-old tradition of a conservative bank.

"THE WHITE MOTH"

The French theatre on screen! A dazzling picturization of the Parisian playhouse of today depicting life behind the scenes from the fall of the curtain 'till dawn. The sensational romance of a Parisian stage beauty. All the glamour of night life in the City of Light, the famous Bal des Artistes—200 beautiful dancing girls—the Quartier Latin—and a story of undying love that rivals the loves of the immortals, are but a few of the many ingredients that go to make up this gorgeous, spectacular photo-play; one that will long remain in the memory. Paris—city of romance—where spirits are high—where love is supreme! Come—meet the White Moth—dancing idol of the gayest city in the world. Distinguished cast.
