IRISH CONCERT GREAT SUCCESS

Unusually Pleasing Program at Westholme Theatre Last Night

The annual St. Patrick's Day concert in the Westholme Theatre under the direction of Charles Balagno was an unusually pleasing event, every member having a great deal of merit. The talent was all local but extremely well chosen and the result was enjoyable throughout.

Outstanding among the performers were Miss Nada Johnstone, a recent arrival, and S. K. Campbell, an old favorite. Both were in excellent voice and sang well. Miss Johnstone is a happy addition to the musical set of the city.

Much credit is due to Professor H. A. Pryce for the excellent performance of the Prince Rupert Amateur Orchestra which gave several numbers. Over twenty instrumentalists took part in the performance, many of them being quite youthful, yet their precision and execution were splendid and the whole effect most pleasing. This orchestra is good enough to perform almost anywhere.

A nice effect was given by the singing of nearly half a hundred girls from Annunciation Catholic School who, under the direction of Charles Balagno, sang several times.

The Westholme Orchestra, small in numbers but excellent in quality, played the opening selections.

The Irish Jig by three girls, Misses Leah, Horstman and Doreen Stretford, was done well and the costumes were very pretty.

The singing of Miss Catherine Jones is deserving of special mention in that the lady is quite young and evidently unaccustomed to the stage and yet her performance last night was excellent. She has a fine voice and with more training and experience should be heard from a great deal in the future. In the encore, however, she did much better.

The sailor's hornpipe was danced by Misses Helen McCaffery, Beatrice Hunter and Jean Callbreath with much spirit and showed excellent training.

Vocal duets by the old favorites, Messrs. Couture and Sabourin were well received. The bootblack song by boys of Annunciation School was well executed.

Miss Margaret Gilchrist at the piano played effectively and her efforts were undoubtedly appreciated. She has a fine touch and a familiarity with the instrument that promises great things for her.

Mrs. J. J. Muldoon sang well and her popularity was evident.

Most of the accompaniments were played by Miss Blanche Curtin, and this service, a most important one, was effectively and most sympathetically carried out.

This year Mr. Balagno has set a standard for St. Patrick's Day events which should have a good effect on future affairs of the kind.

After the event Father McGrath expressed to the press appreciation of the efforts of all who had taken part or in any way aided in the success of the event.

TAKE ACTION ON COMBINE

Attorney-General Manson May Institute Proceedings in Produce Cases

VANCOUVER, Mar. 18. — Attorney General Manson may institute proceedings against the alleged combine for the distribution of fruit and vegetables. He favors federal action but failing that the province may take the matter up. The commissioners report speaks of unsavory transactions in connection with Mutual (Vancouver) Ltd. There were secret rebates and all sorts of complications.

As showing how business was conducted, a car load of cantaloupes from the Associated Growers of Vernon was received by the Mutual at Vancouver on Sept. 11, 1923. They were handed jobbers on consignment, and after the latter had deducted 15 per cent commission, the Vancouver house received $263.52 for the car. Mutual (Vancouver) Ltd., however, accounted to the Growers at $143.69 and even form that amount deducted its regular brokerage.

Dealing with shipments of tomatoes from Victoria the following procedure was used. Mutual, Winnipeg, took orders at $4.25, but wired orders to Victoria at $3.75, notifying Victoria to express to the purchaser but to invoice the Mutual, Winnipeg.

On receipt of invoices from Victoria at $3.75, Mutual, Winnipeg, would invoice the purchasers at $4.25 and remit Victoria $3.75 less 10 cents a crate. Victoria is believed to have made a further reduction before remitting to the grower.

Another charge, for which investigation showed there was absolutely no disbursement, was 5 cents a case "cartage a/c commodity rate" at Vancouver.

WRONGFUL SEIZURE CASE BEFORE JUDGE YOUNG COUNTY COURT

The County Court case of Charles Johnansen vs. John Shirley et el, in which wrongful seizure by the sheriff is alleged, was to have come up this morning before Judge Young but it was adjourned because the plaintiff, who is a fisherman, was not in the city.

The case arises out of furniture valued at $95 having been seized from Rose Hoffman by the sheriff on a landlord's warrant for back rent of premises on Third Avenue. The furniture was taken from a house on Comox Avenue and the plaintiff claims that it was his property and was not supposed to have been in the Third Avenue house at any time. Associated with the sheriff in the defence are Orde & Bell of Vancouver, owners of the Third Avenue house, and M. M. Stephens, agent.

W. E. Fisher has the case for the plaintiff while the defence is in the hands of Milton Gonzales.

Sport Chat

Negotiations are still under way with a view to having a local all-star basketball team go north to Ketchikan and it is hoped to send the squad away on the next steamer. There apparently was some misunderstanding at Ketchikan as to the terms wanted by the locals which it is hoped to adjust by correspondence. It is estimated that it will take something like $400 to finance the trip but that does not necessarily mean that Ketchikan will be required to make a guarantee to that extent.

It is to be hoped that success will attend the efforts being put forward this year by the Fair Board and athletic organizations to have considerable improvements effected at the Acropolis Hill sports grounds. The delegation appearing before the city council Monday night received encouragement from such remarks as were passed by the city fathers who will doubtless do all they can to further the project for removal of the rock pile levelling of the grounds and erection of a grand stand. The proposition advanced to ultimately pay for the work from percentage of gate receipts would seem to be a fair enough one.

Fire Chief D. H. McDonald is confined to his bed with a severe attack of influenza. He is feeling better this morning.
