KING'S POLICY COMMENTED ON

Ottawa Paper Outlines What is Likely to Happen and Why

(Ottawa Citizen.)

The speech of the Dominion premier in Toronto last Monday contained nothing very radical, nor is there any likelihood of any radical measure being introduced from the government side in the coming session of parliament. The policy of the government is plainly to go as far as Canadian public opinion is ready to move forward. Until there is more advanced political thinking in the country, there will be no more advanced legislation.

The government of the country is being carried on reasonably in accordance with Liberal experiences. It is useless to try to move very far ahead of the level of political intelligence in parliament.

Difference in Policy

At the same time, Liberal policy is different from Conservative, to the extent that Liberalism is constantly seeking for opportunities to go forward, while the attitude of Conservatism is to resist progressive change until it is forced to make the move by the pressure of public opinion. The Liberal leader is more responsive than the Conservative to the desire of the community for social progress.

It is apparently the intention of the government to ask parliament to give more consideration to the revision of railway freight rates, than to tariff revision, in the coming session. This constructive policy should commend itself to most Canadian people.

Tariff an Incubus

In many respects, the tariff is an incubus. It is an obstacle to Canadian trade. It is also a tax, as Premier King pointed out in Toronto, "and when it is levied on the instruments of production it constitutes a burden to be borne by industry, a burden which makes its presence felt at each stage of the manufacturing and distributing process and a burden to be carried ultimately by the consumers."

It is called protection, but the tariff is a very unreliable method of protection for Canadian industry, as fifty years of trial has demonstrated. But until the people of Canada, including the financial controllers and practical operators of industry, know how to give the country effective protection, no government can do much through minor changes in the tariff.

When the path to better times is barred in one direction, the Liberal leader's policy is to look for progress along another path. Some progress can be made towards trade improvement in Canada through the proposed revision of railyay freight rates.

Colonization

Progress could be made, too, along the lines of a broad-visioned plan of colonization, not only to bring in more British migrants, but to establish them in reasonable security, on the road to prosperous production. The government's problem is to raise the necessary financial credit to carry out a new national policy of colonization. It should be possible to secure the co-operation of the British government in finding the money to finance bigger settlement projects.

A constructive policy of colonization, coupled with general revision of freight rates, would give Premier King a substantial platform on which to appeal to the electorate this year, if it is considered necessary to secure a renewed vote of confidence in the Liberal administration.

STEWART

The Stewart Board of Trade is petitioning the provincial government and asking the co-operation of the Vancouver, Victoria and Prince Rupert Boards of Trade towards obtaining a road between Stewart and Telegraph Creek, a distance of 175 miles.

The Trop Group, at the head of the Salmon basin, recently bonded by Neil McDonald and Charles H. Lake to E. O. Weston, has been taken over by the Northland Mining Co., Ltd., of Vancouver.

The directors of the recently incorporated Porter Idaho Mining Co., Ltd., and Clay Porter and Ernest Blue, of Hyder; H. W. M. Rolston, of Stewart; J. E. Dickson and W. O. Wallace of Victoria, and Lieut. Col. Montizambert and Lieut. Col. Foster, of Vancouver.

Harry Thomey, formerly foreman of the Dunwell Mine, has been appointed to a similar position with the Victoria Mines Ltd.

Ernest Blue, attorney of Hyder, was married on January 19 in Chicago, to Miss Dorothy Brown of Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs Blue expect to arrive in Hyder about April 1, to take up their residence.

ALICE ARM

There was a large attendance at an interesting dance which was held in the Coliseum Hall last Wednesday night to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Al. Falconer, George Young and H. Butler. The orchestra comprised Mrs. T. W. Falconer, Mrs. J. Laidlaw, C. Hutchinson, Lorne Falconer and R. G. Gordon.

Among local people who have bought shares in the Kitsault River Mining and Development Co., recently incorporated by Elmer Ness, are Art Beaudin, P. Williamson, J. Strombech, Ed. Peterson, A. Serbich, T. W. Falconer, Al. Falconer, Steve Ducass, S. Winstrom, B. Turbitt, P. Monchal, S. E. D. Roe, J. Hanna and A. D. Yorke. Development work on the company's property will commence as soon as the Dolly Varden railway and pack trail is open.

Harry Owen has returned from Vancouver where he spent two months' vacation.

Dick Sullivan, pioneer miner and prospector, has returned to town after an absence of about two years.

Bob McGinnis, who was struck in the eye by a hockey puck, which broke his glasses, has lost the sight of one eye. This was ascertained in an examination at the Anyox Hospital following the accident.

TONNAGE AT ANYOX.

The total tonnage of ore handled at Anyox from the Hidden Creek mine for the month of January up to the 27th was 87,802 tons. Of this 59,005 tons went to the smelter and the remainder to the concentrator.

Sport Chat

Walter Johnson, famous pitching ace of the Washington American Leaguers, would rather be a star on the baseball diamond than in vaudeville or the movies. According to a story going the rounds in Eastern baseball circles, Walter has turned down an offer of $3,000 a week to appear in vaudeville for twelve weeks. In addition it is said that Johnson was wanted to participate in the moving pictures. While the purported offer would give Johnson as much as he receives from Clark Griffith in three seasons, the big leaguer refused to consider it, it is said. Johnson is spending the winter in California at a summer resort off the southern coast. This story is said to have emanated from there.

Fred Fulton, former aspirant to the crown of heavyweight champion, along with others, has been charged in Los Angeles with conspiracy to violate the California boxing laws. The charges were brought following a match between Fulton and Tony Fuente, so called "champion of Mexico," which Fuente won by a knock-out in short order and after which it was charged that the fight was a "frame-up." Investigators claim that they obtained evidence confirming the opinion of many who witnessed the bout that Fulton "laid down" to Fuente falling to the floor after being struck by a light punch from the Mexican fighter. Fulton is said to have admitted receiving $6,000 for the fight which is said to have been a violation of the law. Fuente is also charged.

The line-up in the senior billiard league tournament tomorrow night is as follows:

Don Brown (Grotto) vs. Geo. McIlmoyle (P.R.B.P.)

G. Waugh vs. C. Balagno; J. Hillman v. F. Stephens; E. Pierce vs. Art Easson; B. Morgan vs. B. Jolich.

The schedule of games in the Alice Arm Hockey League was brought to a close last week with all three teams, Tigers, Wildcast and Bears, on level footing with four wins and four losses each. To decide the championship it was decided to play another series of games this week. Games played in the league last week resulted as follows: Bears 5, Tigers 2; Tigers 3, Wildcats 0; Bears 6, Tigers 2.

SWIMMING BATHS IN THE CITY OF OTTAWA

A correspondent of the Ottawa Citizen writing in that paper of the conduct of the public baths in that city says

"Surely Ottawa does not enter into the bathing business with the intention of making money to help pay part of the civic expenses of administration at the city hall. In these two edifices the city has a valuable asset conducive to the health of its citizens. There is no exercise that more fully develops all parts of the body and makes for better manhood and womanhood than swimming, and nothing can develop grace more than diving. These two buildings stand as monuments to the foresight of the city fathers who founded them and we hope will long aid in the development of healthy citizenship in Ottawa.

"Health and happiness in a community are not expressible in terms of dollars and cents."
