CHARLES HERE ON FIRST TRIP

Work Still Proceeding on Canadian National Steamer Which Arrived Yesterday.

The steamer Prince Charles reached port yesterday at four o'clock on the first trip after her recent overhaul. She carried a large passenger list in addition to various members of the C. G. M. M. staff and later sailed for Stewart and Anyox.

The casual observer would note considerable change in her appearance since she last visited this port, although at the present time the alterations cannot in any way be said to be complete for she is carrying nineteen mechanics at the present time who are busily engaged in completing the renovation.

Several new staterooms are being installed, which will give more than forty for the accommodation of first class passengers. In addition a new pilot house and chart room, together with many alterations to the observation room and other parts of the ship have been made.

The Prince Charles is captained by Neil McLean, formerly skipper of the Prince John. Among those who are making the round trip are Reginald Beaumont, marine superintendent of the C.G.M.M., accompanied by Mrs. Beaumont; Captain Hilton, assistant superintendent; R. Knox, port engineer.

The Charles sails south tomorrow afternoon.

CAPTAIN McCROSKIE KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR

Badly Shaken up But Not Seriously Injured When Struck Near Prince Rupert Hotel

What might have been a more serious accident occurred at the corner of 2nd Ave. and 6th St. last night shortly after five o'clock when Capt. McCroskie was knocked down by a car driven by Fred Lowe. The captain was crossing Second Avenue when the car, which came down 6th St. and was rounding the silent policeman collided with the pedestrian.

The captain, who was knocked down was assisted to his feet by passers by and helped to the Prince Rupert Hotel where he remained for a while to recover from the shock., He was later driven to his home where he is resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Jack Dempsey does not like the way the Dawes plan works out. He was under contract to appear in Germany for $15,000 per week and at the end of his engagement was paid $28,000. The internal revenue immediately relieved Jack of $6,000 as his little share towards help paying for the war. Jack says it is all the fault of the Dawes plan.

Miss Gertrude Ederle, United States champion woman swimmer, is in Plymouth, England, and announces that she will immediately start training for the attempt to swim the English channel in July or August.

Considerable interest is being manifested locally in the Canadian Championship Tennis Tournament, which is taking place in Vancouver the week of July 6. From the entries to date it will doubtless prove of interest to many followers of the game locally as many of the entrants are old competitors for honors and there are also many new contestants from various parts of the country.

The world's greatest amateur golfer, without question is "Bobby" Jones. In 1924 he won the American amateur championship; a year after the Open title became his proud possession; after a tie with Cruickshank, one time an Edinburgh amateur.

Jones has this time lost his title—another Scot, in Willie Macfarlane, being his conqueror, after one of the longest fights in golfing history. After two ties he lost by one stroke.

Tunney, who first started boxing while with the American Army in France, was 27 last month, weighed just under 13 stone at the ringside, and is a remarkable skilful boxer as well as a hard hitter. He gave Carpentier the severest beating of the Frenchman's career, and, like Gibbons, is Irish-American.

W. J. Bailey, the famous English cyclist, and one of the handsomest men in sport, is to be filmed in action by John Betts. His muscular activity, as revealed by slow-motion camera, will be a great education to young pathracers.
