SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

NEW COUNCIL METLAKATLA

Annual Election Took Place at Village Yesterday—Capt. H. G. Clifton, Chief

H. G. Clifon, chosen chief councillor for the native village of Metlakatla this year, is a full fledged and certificated tug boat master. For many years he was in command of one of the Georgetown sawmill's tugs..

The election of the Metlakatla council for the year 1925 took place yesterday, Indian Agent W. E. Collison presiding. The new councillors elected were as follows:

Capt. H. G. Clifton, John D. Leighton, H. Prevost, W. M. Leighton, Peter Venn and Reuben Leighton.

The choice of Capt. Clifton as chief councillor was made at the inaugural meeting of the new council which was held soon after the election. Edward A. Leighton was chosen secretary-treasurer and George Leighton, village constable.

The following standing committees were appointed by the chief councillor:

Fire, water and light — John D. Leighton (chairman) and William Leighton.

House and lot — H. Prevost (chairman), and R. Leighton.

School and health — William Leighton (chairman) and Peter Venn.

Roads and bridges — J. D. Leighton (chairman) and H. Prevost.

Village police affairs, it was decided, would be directed by the whole council as a committee.

The chief councillor, ex-officio, is a member of all committees.

The village of Metlakatla already possesses a splendid water system with taps running to all the houses. Now the village is considering the installation of an electric light system and, by next winter, it is hoped that the streets and residences will be illuminated by electricity.

The federal department of public works has already promised the village a new landing stage which is badly needed.

MR. AND MRS. HACKER HOSTS TO CHOIR AND THE OFFICIAL BOARD

Enjoyable Time Spent Last Night at Methodist Church Parlors

Echoed and re-echoed through the memory-laden precincts of the Methodist Church last evening, followed by three rousing British cheers that awakened the neighborhood to a full realization of a wholehearted gratitude couched in no uncertain tones by the thirty odd guests who had partaken of a most sumptuous repast and yet were able to voice their appreciation in this democratic way of the hospitality of their hosts, Rev. G. G. and Mrs. Hacker.

It was the final event of an evening long to be remembered. The members of the Methodist Church official board and choir, their wives and sweethearts were the honored guests of their pastor and his family at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Hacker entertained right royally and during the course of the evening unearthed a series of games and stunts that took the company by storm. The most notable of these gloom-dispensers were the 1925 calendar race, the shirt waist romance, the blindfold hit-and-miss puffed rice contest and a rogue's gallery of distinguished personages reminiscent of vogues that used to be.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Plant, Mr. and Mrs. F. Vickers and Miss E. Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. Biggart, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, Mr. and Mrs Lancaster and Miss M. Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Cornish, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Kergin and Mrs. W. H. Kergin, Mr. and Mrs. Squires, the Misses Stella and Claire Nickerson, Winnie Dibb, E Harding, M. Harton, I. Haddock, Mrs. Manson, Mrs. Magar, Mrs. McGregor and Messrs. W. Walford, H. Pryce, E. Barrie, C. Cameron and J. Wolstenholme.

INADEQUATE SUPPLY--- TEA PRICES HIGHER

Tea prices are going up mainly because tea is being demanded by millions more people. Tea is the cheapest and certainly one of the most palatable and satisfying beverages known. But the tea-growers have been unable to meet the tremendous demand. It takes three years for a tea bush to mature to the plucking stage.
