

Table with tide information for September 13, 1952, showing times and heights for Standard Time.

Mine Reported Off Coast; Body Found In Same Area

Cent Wage Boost Ends Carpenters' Strike

Settlement of the 87-day-old strike of carpenters was announced Thursday. Under the terms of the settlement, workers will receive an 8.25-cent-an-hour increase...

Endorse Phone Law, Elect McLean

Members on Thursday endorsed the $675,000 bylaw and elected Ray McLean as alderman. Harry M. Daggett, city assessor.

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

Fisherman Sights Object 25 Miles From Rupert

An object believed to be a mine has been reported sighted about 25 miles north of Prince Rupert on the west coast of Dundas Island.

B.C. Man Clears up 'Mystery'

The "mysterious disappearance" of an English widow 11 years ago was cleared up today by Charles Seed, former London estate agent.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

SUSPENSION of Alexander Noble, deputy-governor of the Toronto Don Jail has been announced as an investigation continues into the escape of four alleged bank robbers, headed by Edwin Alonzo Boyd.

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

B.C. Pulp Mills Cut Production

A pulp and paper industry spokesman said here Thursday a decline in world markets has resulted in British Columbia mills cutting production of sulphate and sulphite pulp by 20 per cent.

First Freight Rolls Across PGE Extension

PRINCE GEORGE — A freight car carrying a power shovel and hint of a future made railroad history Thursday as it creaked into Prince George behind a work engine.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

Fisherman Sights Object 25 Miles From Rupert

An object believed to be a mine has been reported sighted about 25 miles north of Prince Rupert on the west coast of Dundas Island.

B.C. Man Clears up 'Mystery'

The "mysterious disappearance" of an English widow 11 years ago was cleared up today by Charles Seed, former London estate agent.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

B.C. Pulp Mills Cut Production

A pulp and paper industry spokesman said here Thursday a decline in world markets has resulted in British Columbia mills cutting production of sulphate and sulphite pulp by 20 per cent.

First Freight Rolls Across PGE Extension

PRINCE GEORGE — A freight car carrying a power shovel and hint of a future made railroad history Thursday as it creaked into Prince George behind a work engine.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

B.C. Pulp Mills Cut Production

A pulp and paper industry spokesman said here Thursday a decline in world markets has resulted in British Columbia mills cutting production of sulphate and sulphite pulp by 20 per cent.

First Freight Rolls Across PGE Extension

PRINCE GEORGE — A freight car carrying a power shovel and hint of a future made railroad history Thursday as it creaked into Prince George behind a work engine.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

B.C. Pulp Mills Cut Production

A pulp and paper industry spokesman said here Thursday a decline in world markets has resulted in British Columbia mills cutting production of sulphate and sulphite pulp by 20 per cent.

First Freight Rolls Across PGE Extension

PRINCE GEORGE — A freight car carrying a power shovel and hint of a future made railroad history Thursday as it creaked into Prince George behind a work engine.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

Police Seek Relatives Of Unidentified Man

Body of an unidentified man, believed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, was found late Thursday floating in the steamer channel about 20 miles northwest of Prince Rupert.

B.C. Pulp Mills Cut Production

A pulp and paper industry spokesman said here Thursday a decline in world markets has resulted in British Columbia mills cutting production of sulphate and sulphite pulp by 20 per cent.

First Freight Rolls Across PGE Extension

PRINCE GEORGE — A freight car carrying a power shovel and hint of a future made railroad history Thursday as it creaked into Prince George behind a work engine.

Ship Salvage Poses Problem

Salvage operations of the Princess Kathleen, which grounded and sank near here Sunday, are physically possible but it is a problem whether they are economically feasible.

New Wharf For Pacific Port

Announcement that a $250,000 wharf will be built here to accommodate the greatly increased volume of coastal shipping was made on Thursday by Northland Terminal Co. Ltd.

Manhunt Spreads to Many Areas

Police resigned themselves today to a long, painstaking hunt for Edwin Alonzo Boyd and three members of his bankrobbing gang who escaped from Don Jail here Monday.

MP Seeks Subsidy to Save Fishing Industry

The Federal Government was asked Thursday to establish a subsidy on canned salmon to help regain the United Kingdom market for British Columbia's salmon industry.

Rains Flood Texas Town

Streams were receding in this hill section in southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following the drought-denting rains.

Liquor Study To Begin in Next Few Days

The Vancouver Sun said Thursday in a dispatch from Victoria that the provincial government is expected to announce its method of reforming the province's liquor system "within the next few days."

COMMISSIONER—Commissioner L. H. Nicholson of the Canadian Mounted Police watches members of the famed musical ride go through intricate steps.

MEAT FOR BRITONS

CAPETOWN (CP)—Britons may soon be tasting South African horse and donkey steaks. An importer arrived here to arrange for the purchase of 100 horses and 50 donkeys each week.

BULLETINS

Hit-and-Run Driver Sought

VANCOUVER (CP) — A callous automobile driver was sought today after the death of Phillip Harris, 66, who was struck down by a car last night and his body dragged for almost a block.

Jet Pilot Killed in Crash

TRENTON (CP)—Pilot F/O J. N. McLachlan, of Petrolia, Ont., was killed today when an RCAF Vampire jet crashed on the airfield here during a training flight. The plane went out of control, an airforce spokesman said.

Climbing Costs

OSLO (CP) — A government survey shows that Norway's building costs have gone up about 20 per cent since 1950. The Norway housing bank has decided to increase its loans by an average of eight per cent.

FATHERLY HUG is given two smiling stewardesses of Canadian Pacific Airlines by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent at Prince Rupert airport during the PM's recent visit here. Stewardesses are Margaret Grant (left) of Vancouver and Raymonde Ouellette, formerly of Montreal, now on the trans-Pacific flight.