NO SCARCITY OF HERRING

Big Run at Butler's Cove Reported by Pete Rorvik—Pounds There are Full

The herring run is still going strong and it looks as if there should be plenty of bait for the halibut fishermen this year states Pete Rorvik of the N.M. & R. Fish Co. who came in yesterday from the pound at Butler Cove, Stephens Island. He states that there are 400 tons of live fish now corralled by his outfit at Butler Cove thus filling it to capacity. Now the company's boat Malamute is catching the fish for the Canadian Fisheries plant at Butedale and two big packers are making trips as fast as they can between Butler Cove and Butedale taking 60 tons to the trip. The N. M. & R. Fish Co. lifted their pound from Captain's Cove to Butler Cove this year.

Bradbury and Yelf expect to get their pound of similar capacity full by today. It is also located at Butler Cove and the boat Bethune has been catching the fish.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. have four of their boats engaged at the present time in catching and packing herring, their operations also being centred at Butler Cove. The Fredelia is fishing and the W. R. Lord, Chief Legaic and Grier Starrett are packing. The fish is being brought in as fast as the freezers can handle it at the Cold Storage plant.

EASTER MORNING SUNRISE SERVICE PLANNED VICTORIA

Mount Tolmie to Again be Scene of Unique Gathering

VICTORIA, Mar. 12.—Preparations are already being made for the annual sunrise service at Mount Tolmie on Easter Sunday. The first was organized and conducted by Dr. Clem Davies in 1923 when nearly four thousand people were present. Last year almost double that number went out to the unique service but the difficulty was that they could not hear the speaker. This year power amplifiers are to be used so that an even larger number may hear the address. Programs are being printed and it is announced that the Shrine Band of Gizeh Temple will lead the singing.

WHALEN PULP AND PAPER COMPANY IS NOT VERY HEALTHY

Debenture Holders Will Not Get Half Face Value of Securities and Creditors Nothing

There is a lot of speculation as to the outcome of the bankruptcy proceedings of the Whalen Pulp & Paper Co. and the probable fate of the plants at Swanson Bay and Port Alice. The total assets of the company are valued at a little less than eight million dollars while the indebtedness is over ten millions. Shareholders and unsecured debtors have no equity in the company and will presumably get nothing. Even the debenture holders will get less than half the face value of their securities, if the property fetches the price set by the valuator.

HER NERVES SO BAD SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

Mrs. Grace Kitchen, St. George, Ont., writes:—"After having a severe attack of pneumonia I was left in a weak and run down condition. My nerves were so bad I could not sleep nights, and in the day time I had terrible fainting spells, caused by my heart being weak. Finally I got so bad I had to take to my bed for weeks at a time, but one day I read about so decided to try them.

After taking one box I felt a slight improvement. I have now taken five boxes, and have gained 35 pounds in weight. I am now more than able to do all my own housework as well as considerable outside work. I cannot recommend Milburn's H. & N. Pills too highly for those suffering as I did."

Sport Chat

The Elks have practically cinched the championship of the men's section of the Fraternal Whist League, the season of which will close next week. With only two sets of games to go, the lodgemen are now three games ahead of their runners-up, the Knights of Columbus. The following games are scheduled for tonight: St. Andrew's vs. Loyal Orange Lodge; Sons of England vs. Knights of Pythias; Sons of Canada vs. Knights of Columbus; Elks vs. Moose. In the ladies' section, the Moose Ladies and Daughters of England will play off for the championship tomorrow night. The winners in the ladies' and men's sections will meet as usual, after the close of the season, in competition for the Dybhavn Cup, significant of city championship.

James J. Corbett, "Gentleman Jim," ex-heavyweight boxing champion of the world, who wrote a series of articles in the Saturday Evening Post recently on his career, has started another series in that periodical which give promise of being equally interesting. They are entitled "The Fighting Chance" and commenced last week. In this series, Corbett compares boxing of today with that of past years since the sport was indulged in on an organized basis. He is attempting to compare the merits of the modern boxers with those of yesteryear. He says that one difficulty in making such comparisons is that regulations of today prevent boxers from showing their endurance like they were able to in the days of battles that went twenty and even as far as sixty rounds. The game has also become injured by the money demands that are made by the champions of today and there is not the same action that there used to be in the actual fights. The battle between Dempsey and Firpo he points to as the only one in recent years that came up in point of action to the ones of twenty or so years ago. Corbett ranks Benny Leonard, the present lightweight champion, at the head of a list of great lightweights of all time though, in this case, he is also doubtful of his endurance possibilities. It will be interesting to note how Corbett will compare the heavyweights of today with those of his time.
