having a distinct individuality, not as a type of standardized proportions. That's why men who go out of our store are men who always look well-dressed. We handle the clothes of the leading clothing manufacturer in Canada — LEISHMAN CLOTHES. They are clothes that turn out a well-dressed man-not merely a man with a suit of clothes covering his back. "OUALITY" is to be seen in every line of them-in their style, fabrics, appropriateness and unusually long wear.
