One Secret Of

Vancouver's Success.

One of the secrets of Vancouver's success is the unity of contentions, it was decided on purpose of the residents. Everyone there pulls for Vancouver, motion of Ald. ### DENIES HE GAVE HIS CONSENT TO SEWER BEING TAKEN OVER

J. W. McKinley appeared before the city conneil to protest against a sewer built and owned by him being taken over by the city council without his knowledge or consent.

Reading the report from their Daily News of the council's deeision last week to take over the sewer, Mr. McKinley suggested that sharp methods had been applied by someone in putting the matter before the council in the light that it had been. It was incorrect that he had given his! permission. He did not intend to! give over for the benefit of the public without some consideration a sewer that had cost him several hundred dollars. Al! he. asked was that the sewer be given back to him as a matter of justice.

Mayor Newton and the members of the board of works assured Mr. McKinley that, in taking over the sewer, there had been no intention but to give him ! fairplay. It had been understood hat he had approved of it being taken over and, if he did not, the council had been misinformed.

In view of Mr. McKinley's
