Mackenzie King Government to Meet Parliament and Allow It to Decide Who is to Carry On

Prime Minister adopts constitutional practice which is accepted by Governor; supreme right of people recognized

OTTAWA, Nov. 5.—It is officially announced that Premier Mackenzie King will meet Parliament and that Parliament will be called at the earliest possible date. In his statement he said:

"The latest official returns having been made it is apparent as a result of the general election that as no one of the political parties would of itself have clear majorities in the House of Commons when Parliament assembles, it became my duty as Prime Minister to acquaint His Excellency, the Governor General, of the situation and to advise His Excellency as to the course that should be pursued.

"After several interviews with His Excellency at which the position brought about by the recent general election was fully discussed and all alternatives presented, I have taken the responsibility of advising His Excellency to summon Parliament for the earliest practical date in order to ascertain the attitude of the parliamentary representatives towards the very important question raised by the numerical position of the respective political parties.

Ku Klux Klan Meeting at Shaughnessy Heights Vancouver to Organize

Objects of the order expounded at informal reception and delegates present from State of Washington

Shaughnessy Heights, home of Vancouver's 400 and high society centre, is to be headquarters for Canadian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which, built up along the lines of the hooded order in the United States, is to be organized from the Pacific to the Atlantic, says the Vancouver Star. Inside two years there will be one million of the Klansmen in the Dominion, according to "His Excellency" Major L. L. Powell, Imperial Klazik of the Invisible Empire, who with other Klansmen has been organizing here for some time.

Although rumors of the activities of the Klan have been heard for several months, the first semi-public organization work commenced Friday night last, when about fifty men and ten women, residents of the city, met at the Imperial Palace, "Glenbrae," the old Tait residence at 1690 Matthews Avenue West, Shaughnessy Heights, in response to a special invitation sent out bearing the seal of the Klan.

The invitations themselves caused comment, and by many were taken as a hoax. However they proved to be official. Type-written on official Klan stationery in black and red type, they read as follows: "Friday, October 30th, 1925, being the Fearful Day of the Weird Week, of the dreadful Month, of the year of Klan One, Canadian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, an informal reception will be held at the Imperial Palace, 1690 Matthews Avenue, West, at 8 p.m. All Genii, Dragons, Hydras, Great Titans and Furies; Giants, Exalted Cyclops, and Terrors will be present to meet, under the kindly light of the Fiery Cross which will illumine the Klavern."

"You are personally invited to attend. Upon presentation of this letter at the door, the holder will be conducted to the Aulic of the Imperial Klazik, who will be glad to give details as to the objects, ideals and purposes of the Canadian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

"Done in the executive chambers of His Excellency, the Imperial Klazik, in the Imperial Palace, in the Imperial City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, Dominion of Canada, on the day and date above written."

Those who obeyed the summons found the door guarded, and showing through the lighted panels were the hooded figures of two klansmen on duty inside. Once in the visitor was taken by the hand and registered, following which lectures as to the objects for which the Klan was formed were given by Major Powell, who hails from Portland, Oregon, and Dr. Keith K. Allen, of Los Angeles, whose card shows him to be a National lecturer for the Anti-Narcotic League of America with headquarters at 5839 La Mirada, Los Angeles.

One of the first objects striking the eyes of visitors was the fiery cross, which was erected inside near a flagpole from which the Union Jack was flying. On a table, also a flag draped, (continued on page two)
