BILL SHRUBSALL IS RECOVERING FROM A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

A letter from W. Shrubsall, formerly well known as an old-timer in the fish-curing business here and now a resident of Boston, Mass., to Lawrence Potterton, of the local police force, states that he is just recovering from a successful operation for hernia. He also says that the business prospects in Boston look good to him and that he is considering going into the fish business for himself when he is better acquainted with local business conditions.

Mr. Shrubsall also speaks of the better prices for fish prevailing at Prince Rupert than in Boston and refers to the latter city as a veritable dumping ground.

In closing, Mr. Shrubsall sends his best wishes to all his old friends.

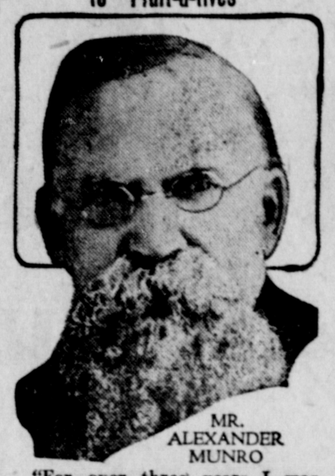
CRIPPLED BY RHEUMATISM

—now enjoys long walks, thanks to "Fruit-a-tives"



MR. ALEXANDER MUNRO

"For over three years I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I tried nearly everything without receiving any benefit. Finally I tried "Fruit-a-tives"—half a box brought improvement and continued treatment made me well. Now, I can walk several miles, and do chores around the place" —Mr. Alexander Munro, Lorne, Ontario.

Rheumatism is the direct result of a poisoned blood stream. "Fruit-a-tives" act as a restorative to the liver and kidneys; cleanse the blood stream and make digestion complete. "Fruit-a-tives" act as a bracing tonic too. They are the famous fruit treatment for all intestinal complaints. 25c and 50c boxes from all dealers, or mailed direct by "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Lots of fun for father, mother, brother and sister at the Labor Day Sports on Monday.

Mrs. James Parsons, 621 Fifth Avenue East, recently returned to the city after spending the summer months visiting with relatives and friends in southern cities.

Travel via the air route. Airplane flights from Prince Rupert Boathouse during Fair Week. Commencing Monday morning, $10.00 a flight. Three persons for $25.00.

Terry Orme, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Orme, returns this afternoon on the Princess Louise to resume his school studies at Vernon after having spent the summer vacation here.

Bartlett Wakefield, son of Consul and Mrs. E. A. Wakefield, will sail this evening on the Prince George for Bellingham, where he will resume his school studies after having spent the summer vacation here.

Col. McLean and the Hon. Mrs. McLean of London, England, in the course of a Canadian tour, arrived in the city from the East on last night's train and sailed for Anyox and Stewart on the steamer Prince George. They will proceed south on that steamer today to Victoria, where they will visit preparatory to returning to England.

Because there is not enough business offering, the special train which was to have left here for the Telkwa Barbecue tomorrow night is being cancelled. There have been, however, a number of local people leaving this week for the Barbecue and Prince Rupert will be well represented there. Robert Gordon and H. F. McLeod left on this morning's train to take in the celebration. The most of the local people will return from Telkwa on Wednesday afternoon's train.

SHAKESPEAREAN STYLE

"There are some points about your writings that much resemble Shakespeare," said the editor.

"Do you think so?" cried the delighted author.

"Yes," the editor continued, "you employ almost the same punctuation marks."

FINDING THEIR FUNCTION.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight Only, Saturday at 7 and 9.00

"The Light of Western Stars"

By Zane Grey. A swift story of the final clash between civilization and outlawry in the wilds of Arizona. A thrill-shot romance of the taming of the West. A tale of hair-raising adventures and hairbreadth escapes of border clashes, broncho busting, straight shooting with a dash of love. A smashing photo-play of the days when a quick trigger and a fast horse were a man's best friend. Somewhere west of Laramie, the land of crags and canyons, the land of quick shooters and golden girls. Moonlight on the mesa, gorgeous and danger-fraught. Red blooded action surging through magic Arizona nights. When the West was young and romance galloped over the trails. Superb cast of favorites. Jack Holt, Billie Dove, Noah Berry, George Nichols, Robert Perry, Alma Bennett and others.

VAUDEVILLE between pictures 8.50 p.m. Howard Webster, the white boy with the black face, assisted by Dolly Daye, musical comedy star.
