ACME SALE IS ATTENDED WELL

Splendid Selection of Low Priced Goods Attract Crowd of Buyers

That Prince Rupert shoppers are keen buyers and recognise geniune values when they see them has been amply demonstrated at the Acme Importers' Annual Temptation Sale which opened yesterday morning. In spite of inclement weather the store was crowded all day and sales reached the highest peak of the year.

For the past three years it has been the custom of the Acme Importers to put on a sale just prior to Christmas, when shoppers are looking for bargains. This procedure has proven to be an excellent one in clearing up winter stocks ready for spring and summer deliveries.

The Acme Importers' stock comprises wearing apparel for both men and boys and every single article, including a new stock of Christmas novelties, is being offered for sale. A big feature of the sale this year is the bargain trays in which many oddments are placed at ridiculously low prices.

It is well to visit the sale, which will continue over the holiday season, while sizes and patterns are complete.—Advt.

LUTHERAN BAZAAR SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Sum of $330 Realized—Proceedings Closed With a Concert Last Evening

The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held in the Metropole Hall yesterday proved to be a very successful affair, the sum of $330 having been realized.

The proceedings closed with a musical program last night and, while the weather was very inclemnt, there was a good attendance. Those contributing to the program included Miss Aleita McKinley, piano solo; Walter Johnson, violin solo, accompanied by Edward Baisler; vocal solo, Mrs. J. Field, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Hinton; piano solo, Miss Mary Walters; pantomime, "Old Folks at Home," by Misses Margit Halberg, Aleda Ivarson and Agnes Ivarson.

Rev. P. E. Baisler, who presided, gave a brief address on the work of the Ladies' Aid and stated that the proceeds of the bazaar would be used to furnish the new church which it is proposed to build next spring on Sixth Avenue at Dunsmuir Street.

PLAYERS CLUB WILL PREPARE FOR SECOND PERFORMANCE FEBRUARY

Meeting of Executive Decides to Start Work on Another Play: Museum Benefited by Last

The executive of the Prince Rupert Players' Club met last evening at the home of Alex. McConnon, president, in the Brooksbank Block, Third Avenue. The affairs of the first entertainment were settled up with the result tha the sum of $164.35 will be placed at the disposal of the Prince Rupert Museum Board.

A constitution for the club was finally adopted, one of the chief features being that a fee of a dollar a year be charged members.

The club is planning to put on another play in February and will commence practices early in the new year. For this play some additional actors will be required. W. H. Walton, secretary of the club, undertook to receive applications for membership.

A committee appointed to choose a play was appointed to consist of W. H. Walton, J. S. Wilson, Miss Beatrice Burke and the president. The secretary already has been preparing data with that end in view.

A general meeting will be called in a few days.

Keep the Skin Clear

By the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment

Dr. Chase's Ointment is so delightfully soothing and healing and so certainly effective in keeping the skin soft, smooth and clear that it only has to be tried to be appreciated.

You may know of its value as a relief from eczema, salt rheum and other serious skin diseases. But have you realized that as a means of clearing and beautifying the skin it has no equal and no rival.

Pimples, blackheads, roughness and redness of the skin, irritations and eruptions yield readily when this soothing, healing ointment is applied frequently.

Men use Dr. Chase's Ointment after shaving to relieve the irritation of the tender skin. In scores of ways it is useful in every home and soon becomes a household necessity.

CARDS AND DANCING AT ELKS LAST NIGHT

Enjoyable Event for Christmas Cheer Fund: Bib Cabaret Dance in Near Future

The second of a series of dances being given by the Elks for their Christmas Cheer fund was put on last evening and proved very successful. There was a good attendance and everyone seemed to have an enjoyable time.

Whist and bridge tables were provided and the winners of the games were as follows:

Bridge

Ladies' first, Mrs. Gulich.
Ladies' second, Mrs. W. Balagno.
Men's first, G. Gulich.
Men's second, W. Vance.

Whist

Ladies' 1, Mrs. Frank Clapp.
Ladies' 2, Mrs. Paton.
Men's 1, Charles Biggert.
Men's 2, J. Fortin.

For the dance music was provided by Kenny Rood's orchestra and the committee in charge consisted of Kenny McQuaig, Dave Balfour and Andy Donald. Refreshments were served.

The Elks are planning to make their final Christmas Cheer party outdo everything heretofore attempted. It will take the form of a cabaret and it is expected will be a big event.

JOHN LINDSETH AND MISS SORENSEN WED

Quiet Ceremony Took Place Yesterday Afternoon at 1150 Hays Cove Avenue

In the presence of a few friends, the wedding took place quietly at 2.30 yesterday afternoon at the residence of the groom, 1150 Hays Cove Avenue, of Miss Elsie Catherine Sorensen and John Lindseth, Rev. P. E. Baisler, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiating. The witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Hovmoller. In the evening a wedding supper and reception was held.

Mr. Lindseth is well known in Prince Rupert having resided in the city for the past twelve years. He is engaged in the logging industry. Mrs. Lindseth arrived here a few years ago from Denmark. They will reside on Hays Cove Avenue.

BRIEF MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE

Annual Meeting Will be Held in January When New Officers Will be Elected

The Board of Trade almost made a record last night for the small amount of work done and the time taken to do it. Instead of the usually voluminous correspondence, there was none to read, no reports of committees to receive and no discussions.

It was decided to refer to the works committee a proposal to ask the Provincial Government to proceed with construction of the Kaien Island road during the winter. It was pointed out that the mud there was very deep and that days were short. As no one knew why the work had stopped the committee will have the matter in hand.

Mention was made of the fact that the next meeting of the Board will be the annual meeting when officers for the coming year will be elected.
