VICTORIANS LOOKING FOR BISHOP OF LONDON

(Victoria Times)

Victorians have learned with considerable satisfaction that the Bishop of London has promised to come to this city next September and lay the cornerstone of the new Anglican Cathedral. By a fortunate circumstance the distinguished prelate has arranged to visit this country and the United States next year, on his way to the Orient, and his itinerary conveniently permits him to be here at a time which fits in with that arranged for this important ceremonial. I will be a red letter day in the annals of the Anglican Church on Vancouver Island and of no small significance as an event in itself. His Lordship is extremely popular with all denominations in Great Britain and his tour of this continent will be looked forward to with more than usual interest by church and laity as a whole.
