ROBERT DOWTHER IS LAID TO REST

Many Persons Paid Last Respects at Rites this Afternoon

There was a very large attendance at the funeral service for the late Robert Douthier in the Presbyterian Church this afternoon.

Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant, in conducting the service, paid tribute to the high qualities of manhood by which the deceased would be remembered and made fitting reference to the general esteem in which he was held by all who had been privileged to make his acquaintance. Death had come again to the home and there were left behind to mourn those who had known him as husband and father. To them the sympathy of the whole community would go out in this sad hour.

There was to comfort them the sweet memory of a sterling type of manhood who had played his part well in the game of life. Dr. Grant further expressed the genuine sympathy of Christianity in the hour of bereavement and spoke of death as being but the release of the soul for a better sphere. The whole service was of a very solemn and impressive character.

Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, during the service, sang very sweetly "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

R. Gordon, Bruce Love, J. Lambie, S. D. Macdonald, A. Finnie and Rolf Walker acted as pall bearers.

The funeral cortege proceeded to Fairview Cemetery, where interment took place in St. Andrew's plot.

The casket was covered with flowers from the many friends who wished to express their sympathy and respect.

Among those sending flowers were: Mrs. R. Douthier and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Penney and Audrey, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Steen and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. C.
