UNITED CHURCH BOYS EXCELLENT

Ethiopian Farce and Minstrel Show Given Last Evening to be Repeated Tonight

Hundreds of people turned out last night to the Minstrel Serenade given by the Trail Rangers and Tuxis Boys under the direction of W. J. E. Barrie, assisted by R. McKibbin, and they were not disappointed. The event was most enjoyable, everything being carried out with a snap and without annoying repetitions.

The first part of the program consisted of an Ethiopian farce, "Black Blunders," which caused a great deal of amusement. The parts in it were as follows:

Julius Crow, a patent blacking pedlar, R. McKibbin.

Jocelyn Highflyer, a dandy barber, E. Barrie.

Major Raccoon, a military guardian, C. Thompson.

Sam Caesar, in love with Cynthia, B. Hunt.

Pompey Ducklegs, a hotelkeeper, W. Patmore.

Joe Squashall, his right-hand man, B. Irvine.

Cynthia Raccoon, a runaway "evening star," B. Stevens.

Phillisey Ann, a kitchen maid, F. Brooksbank.

And visitors at the convention.

The second part was a minstrel entertainment of the ordinary black face type. Bruce Stevens, the boy treble, brought down the house with his singing of "Georgia Lullaby." He has an unusually good voice and is learning to use it well. Those taking part in the minstrel show were: T. Steen, B. Hunt, H. Macdonald; W. Patmore, J. Bryant, A. McDonald, J. Hilditch, E. Walters, B. Matheson, F. Brooksbank, D. Stalker, C. Thompson, Y. Katsuyama, E. Barrie, R. McKibbin. End men: E. Smith, B. Stevens, E. Anderson, B. Irvine, J. Parker, C. Litnes, M. Sakamoto, E. Ratchford. Centre man: I. Katsuyama.

The minstrel program consisted of:

"Way Down in Caroline," E. Barrie and Chorus.

"Kinky Kids Parade," Entire Company.

"Georgia Lullaby," B. Stevens and Chorus.

"Down on the Farm," E. Barrie and Chorus.

"Virginny," duet.

"Collegiate," Entire Company.

"Rock-a-bye Blues," Y. Katsuyama and Chorus.

"Back in Hackensack," C. Litnes and Chorus.

A small orchestra consisting of W. Murray, N. Moorehouse and C. Cameron with violin, saxophone and piano respectively, played between the parts and there was also a little sketch.

The entire program is being repeated tonight.

SPIRIT OF UNITY IN THE UNITED CHURCH

(Vancouver Star)

The spirit of unity and goodwill that has marked the first British Columbia conference of the United Church of Canada augurs well for the success of the movement. Although some 30 per cent of the membership of the Presbyterian Church was lost when the union come into being, the United Church has undertaken responsibilities that are in excess of those carried on by the various component churches.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Walter Piper Entertains Number of Small Guests at Home of Parents

At the home of his parents, 1228 Park Avenue, Walter Piper entertained a few friends at a party celebrating his ninth birthday last evening.

After supper was over, many amusing games were indulged in, some of the winners being as follows: pinning donkey's tail, Jack Lindsay and Edna McLean; hopping, Herbert Morgan and Jean McLean; skipping, Beatrice Olsen.

The party ended with an elaborate display of fire crackers, the occasion being also the anniversary of the Gunpowder Plot.

Those present were Jean and Edna McLean, Beatrice Olsen, Herbert Oliver, Jack Lindsay, Willard Rea, Herbert Morgan, Walter Piper, Hortense, Adelaide and Mary Piper and Frankie Piper.

SPORT CHAT

The Victoria Cougars, champions of hockey world, assembled in Winnipeg this week to start active training for the season. Towards the end of this month, the Cougars will travel East to play a series of exhibition matches in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. Then they will come back to the coast to get down to business in the league schedule. There is a possibility that two of the well known players of the Cougars in former years may not be on the line-up this year. Frank Frederickson, it is said, would prefer to remain with his insurance business in Winnipeg while Frank Foyston is not anxious about giving up butchering in Seattle. Owing to the Cougars' trip East, the opening of the Western Hockey League in Victoria has been postponed until December 5.

"Young" Stribling, who is often referred to as the coming heavyweight champion of the world, will become of age on December 26 of this year. Because he is not of age, Stribling has been so far barred from contesting bouts of more than six rounds in New York. Now that that technicality is about to be removed, the promising young heavy's supporters say he will rapidly forge to the top and that it will be only a very short time before he will be a serious contender for Jack Dempsey's crown. In the meantime, a bout for the world's light heavyweight title between Stribling and Paul Berlenbach is being boomed for late in December or early in January.

This sufferer literally covered with skin disease—15 years of suffering—then his whole body cleared off in 45 days—a new skin grown—no pain, no itching, no irritation.

This story seems incredible as do hundreds of other cases relieved by the powerful liquid for the treatment of skin diseases.
