I wish I knew

"I wish I knew what to put on these floors!" So often you hear that remark. It is only because those people who make it, have had their fill of waxes, oils and cheap varnishes. The man or woman who has used the right floor varnish has no floor troubles.

RAILWAY MAN GOLF DEFENDER

J. Gill Gardiner of Thornton Party Tells of Jasper Course

CALGARY, Aug. 20.—"Calgary is to be congratulated this year in having the Western Canada Golf Tournament staged here," declared J. Gill Gardiner, of Brockville, a director of the Canadian National Railways, on his arrival here as a member of Sir Henry Thornton's party. Mr. Gardner who is an ardent golf enthusiast was a close observer of the games being played here. He voiced the conviction that before long most of the real championship games played in Canada, would be fought out on the new Jasper Park course, which gives promise of being one of the finest in Canada, if not on the continent.

"I wish those of our critics, who had talked extravagance in building golf courses at Jasper Park and Minaki could go over the nine holes of the Jasper course which are in play," Mr. Gardiner declared." They would only have to listen to the comments of golf fans amongst the tourists to know that this promises to be one of the best investments that we have yet made and with the completion of the 18 holes Jasper Park will have a golf course that will be second to nothing in Canada.

Mr. Gardiner spoke highly of the receptions which had been tendered to Sir Henry and the members of his party along the line and said that everywhere the people had gone out of their way to show their appreciation of what the Canadian National management were doing in trying to provide the best transportation service for the Dominion.

Sport Chat

The fourth game in the Gilhuly Cup football series, that between the Sons of England and the Cold Storage, is scheduled to take place this evening at the Acropolis Hill grounds. In the first meeting of the series between these teams, the Sons were victorious but the Cold Storage players have high hopes that they will be able to turn the tables tonight. One thing they seem to have in their favor is an effective attack if it is properly arranged.

The Sons of England announce the following line-up; R. Howe, goal; George Howe and George Waugh, full backs; Hansen, Bales and Doherty, half backs; Long, Russell, Johnson, Dickens and Farquhar, forwards.

Cold Storage: A. Murray, C. Whatman, E. Jack, J. Corbet, J. Sim, A. Macdonald, S. Erskine, A. Harvey, G. Wiper, S. Elder, C. Norrington. Reserves: H. Carlson, S. Darton and J. Torney.

BASEBALL CLASSIC PLAYED YESTERDAY

Gyros Beat Rotarians For Second Time This Season at Acropolis Hill

The second of the classic baseball games between the Rotary and Gyro Clubs was played at the Acropolis Hill grounds yesterday afternoon, the Gyros winning on the long end of a 15 to 8 score. There was a fair crowd in attendance and the proceeds will be applied to the Gyro Club's playground fund. The game was not without its amusing incidents and what the players may have lacked in skill they fully made up for in vigor and enthusiasm. Both sides played to win and their efforts with that end in view were productive of plenty of fun.

Stan Taylor pitched for the Gyro Club and Consul Wakefield was on the mound for the Rotarians. Bill Cruikshank and George Munro were the respective catchers. Outstanding features were the fielding of Bob Robertson and Bill Nelson, short stop and right fielder for the Gyro Club and of Dr. W. T. Kergin, centre fielder, and Hank Little, first baseman for the Rotarians. Jarvis McLeod, short stop for the Rotary Club, was as usual lithe and ubiquitous.

The teams lined up as follows:

Gyro Club—Milt Gonzales, 1b; S. K. Campbell, lf; Roy McNaughton, 3b; Charlie Balagno, cf; Bill Nelson, rf; Bob Robertson, ss; Harold McEwen and Charlie Starr, 2b; Bill Cruikshank, c; S. W. Taylor, p.

Rotary Club— George Munro, c; Walter Vance, lf; Hank Little, 1b; Norman Watt, 2b; Jarvis McLeod, ss; Dr. Will Kergin, cf; George Bryant, rf; Consul Wakefield, p; Sid Johnstone, 3b.

Lionel Holtby was umpire of balls and strikes and Tommy Trotier of bases. They did their best and got away with it.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5
Gyro	1	1	0	9	4	—15
Rotary .. .	3	2	0	2	1	— 8

BASEBALL GAME WAS TWELVE-ALL DRAW

Sons of Canada and Gyro Club Had Batting Practice at Acropolis Grounds Last Night

The baseball game last night at the Acropolis Hill between the Sons of Canada and the Gyro Club turned out to be more of a batting practice than anything else. It only went four innings and, when it was called off on account of darkness, the score was 12 all. Tulloch pitched for the Gyro Club and Alex Roy for the Sons of Canada, Willie Lambie making his debut as a pitcher toward the end of the game when he relieved Roy. He showed up to advantage.

The line-ups were:

Sons of Canada—McKeown, c; Roy, p; V. Menzies, 1b; D. Balfour, 2b; Alex Mitchell, ss; J. Farquhar, 3b; Lambie, lf; W. Mitchell, cf; D. Frizzell, rf; Harvey Hansen, rf.

Gyro Club—Robideau, c; Tulloch, p; S. Bazett-Jones, 1b; G. Mitchell, 2b; Vallance, ss; Moran, 3b; H. Astoria, lf; H. Frizzell, cf; D. Lidstone, rf.

Laporte and McMaster were umpires. A good crowd was in attendance.

A home run was made by Jack Ratchford in the last inning. McKeown suffered an injury to his finger.

The members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police being in town just now, it has been arranged that the match between a team of seven from that body and an equal number from the Rifle Association here shall take place at McNicholl ranges on Sunday for the corporation cup. The cup was won by the Regiment last year and the Mounties have challenged for it this year.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH GET GREEK CONTRACTS

ATHENS, Aug. 20.—One of the most important contracts awarded by the Greek government is that given to American and British capitalists recently for improvements in the Saloniki district. The contracts provide for the abolishment of lakes in that district and for changing the course of the Vardar River in Macedonia.

It is expected that the work when completed will result in improved health conditions for the entire district by the removal of the sources of malaria and that 400 square kilometers of land will have been reclaimed. The amount of capital to be furnished by the Americans and Britains is said to be $26,000,000. The contract was signed for American interests by Franklin Remington, president of the New York Foundation Company

SHED CLOTHES USED IN ARCTIC WILDS AND BECAME MEN OF WORLD

NY-AALESUND, Kingsbay, Spitzbergen, Aug. 21.—Polar explorers, it seems, do not look the part unless they are exploring.

When Roald Amundsen, Lincoln Ellsworth and their companions landed back here, they did not lose much time in shedding their Arctic apparel for everyday garb.

True enough, they all needed shaves and baths badly, but their metamorphosis into well groomed men of the world was so complete as to startle those who met them soon after their arrival.

Amundsen wore a well-fitting gray sports jacket, with cap, breeches, hose and brogues to match. A silk handkerchief peeped out of his breast pocket, and with his grave courtly manners he had the air of a typical country squire.

Riiser-Larsen's athletic figure showed up bravely in dark blue serge, silk socks and patent leather shoes. Oscar Omdal also affected blue serge. Leif Dietrichson sported neat grey tweeds and Ellsworth affected a gray woolen sweater with flannel trousers. He generally went about bare-headed. Feucht was dressed in a plain business suit that might pass in any European capital.

Their copper-hued complexions alone betrayed an intimate acquaintance with Arctic blasts.
