NO GREAT MEN IN WORLD TODAY

Bishop of Manchester Urges Against Encouraging Restless Spirit of Age

LONDON, Nov. 4.—According to Bishop Temple, of Manchester, (son of the former Archbishop of Canterbury, and destined himself, in the opinion of many, to succeed some day to that office) the world is not producing great individuals in the present era. Bishop Temple admits that the average level of intelligence, and possibly of character, may be higher than usual, but "we are sadly lacking in people who have struck their own roots, and who are drawing out of themselves their own mental, moral and spiritual nourishment."

These sentiments were uttered when the Bishop addressed a gathering in Manchester on "The Church and Publicity." The adoption of methods which made no appeal either to the intelligence or the moral sense might be legitimate in commerce, he said. They might be effective, though they were certainly not legitimate, in politics, but they could be neither legitimate nor effective in religion. It was extraordinarily difficult for the church to find any effective publicity which did not on the whole minister to the restless spirit. If publicity had to be striking, arresting, it had to some extent make people jump. Yet, the first duty of the Church in an age like ours was to persuade people to stop jumping—to sit still, or to kneel still and to appreciate those eternal things from which the bustle of the world was diverting their attention.

APPEAL MADE FOR LADY COMMUNIST

Jail Sentence in United States for Being Member of Communist Labor Party

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(By Canadian Press).—Miss Charlotte Anita Whitney, facing a jail sentence of from one to fourteen years for being a member of the Communist Labor Party, is vigorously appealed for by R. W. Riis in a letter to the press, who says:—"A national-wide appeal to Governor Richardson of California is being organized by the American Civil Liberties Union, a body which is intent only upon conserving freedom of speech, of assemblage and of the press. Miss Whitney is a niece of a Supreme Court Judge. She is very much of the type of Jane Addams, holding many offices in charitable women's Suffrage and University circles. Through her social work in 1919 she joined the Communist Labor Party. In 1920 she was convicted by the California courts of membership in this party. There was no charge that she advocated violence in governmental reform. As a matter of fact, she repeatedly urged in her party councils only peaceful methods. Her conviction, therefore, was based entirely on her membership in that party. It is a fundamental principal of law that guilt must be personal. The doctrine of guilt by association was characteristic of the Middle Ages. It has no place in our modern democracy."

JUNIOR GIRLS WERE JOINT HOSTESSES AT UNITED CHURCH

Debate Took Place Between Teams from Either Side; Banquet Enjoyable

SPORT CHAT

The Sault Ste. Marie senior hockey team, Allan Cup winners in 1924 and for years one of the outstanding teams in Canadian amateur senior hockey, have promised its allegiance as a body to the Kneckerhocker hockey club of New York and will play this year in the Eastern Hockey League, affiliated body of the United States Amateur Hockey Association. This league includes the Pittsburgh Hornets, United States finalists last year, Boston and Providence and possibly two Canadian teams.

Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight and one time contender for the world's title, is about to make a third invasion of the United States which will open at Los Angeles early in December when he will meet Jimmy Delaney, the St. Paul heavyweight. According to the articles of his agreement, Carpentier will not fight any other opponent before he leaps into the ring at Los Angeles. Arrangements are being made, however, for a number of other more or less important bouts to take place after that event.
