

TEN MILLION VISITED FAIR

Directors of British Empire Exhibition Thanked Sir Henry Thornton for His Share in Success

MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—Ten million people visited the pavilion of the Canadian National Railways at Wembley during the two seasons, according to cable advices received at headquarters of the company here yesterday. Following the final closing of the British Empire Exhibition, this number includes thousands of school children. Literature dealing with various phases of Canadian life and natural resources was supplied to more than two thousand school teachers. This literature, it has been learned, has been accepted in the majority of instances as the text by which instruction on Canada is given to school children in many parts of Great Britain.

Before the exhibition closed on Saturday, Right Hon. J. B. Thomas, M.P., visited the Canadian National pavilion on behalf of the directors of the exhibition, wished God speed to the staff and asked that the thanks of the directors be transmitted to Sir Henry Thornton for the splendid exhibit which the company had maintained and for the co-operation which had been given to those who had the welfare of the exhibition at heart. He stated that the directors had recognized the Canadian National exhibit as one of the most outstanding contributions to the fair and that this opinion was held by the many distinguished visitors, including the King and Queen who had visited the pavilion and also by the millions of ordinary visitors.

RED CROSS WORK IN ALASKA IMPORTANT

Large Sum to be Raised to Carry on Activities in Territory

JUNEAU, Nov. 4.—Juneau is making an effort to raise $2,275 to finance the year's work of the Red Cross Society carried on by Juneau Chapter. The ninth annual roll call will be held November 11 to 26 when the drive will be made in all communities of the Chapter to secure funds.

Records of the past three or four years show that it costs the Chapter annually approximately $3,000 to carry on the work it has undertaken throughout the district, which includes community health, public school health inspection and social service work. This has been carried on in every town and Indian settlement in the Chapter.

GOVERNMENT POLICY

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government. Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

FUNERAL TODAY

Remains of Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blain Interred in Fairview Cemetery

Funeral services for the eight month old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blain, whose death occurred Monday night, took place at 2:30 this afternoon from Haynes Bros. Chapel to Fairview Cemetery, Rev. Father P. J. McGrath, O.M.I., officiating.

Among those sending flowers were Knights of Columbus, Mrs. A. Leveque, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith, Sergeant and Mrs. H. McGlinchy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Larsen, Thomas Trotter.

LAND ACT.

Notice of Intention to Apply to Lease Lands

In Prince Rupert Land Recording District, and situated at Cove, Spicer Island, about 60.00 chains southeasterly from the extreme northwest end of Spicer Island, and about 24.00 chains east from Schooner Pass; thence south 2.61 degrees, northerly meandering along the high tide to post of commencement, and containing 1.00 acre, more or less.

WALLACE FISHERIES LIMITED, Applicant.

Dated September 26th, 1925.

RAFFLES OR GAMES OF CHANCE PROHIBITED

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that I have been instructed to strictly enforce Section 236 of the Criminal Code of Canada which makes it an indictable offence to apply for permission to give away of any kind for the purpose of determining who are the holders of lots, tickets, numbers or chances of any property being sold or disposed of or dispose of any game, wares or merchandise by means of chance or mixed chance and skill who induces any person to stake money or other valuable property or thing on the result of any game of chance, by wheel, counter, or otherwise, or to conduct any raffle or lottery.

This section does not apply to raffles or prizes of a value not to exceed $50.00 in any bazaar held for religious or charitable purposes, provided permission is first obtained from the Mayor of the City to hold the same.

W. H. VICKERS, Chief of Police,

251

Notice of Intention to Apply to Lease Land.

In Prince Rupert Land Recording District, and situated at Newcombe Harbor, Pitt Island, about one mile northeast from the entrance to Petrel Channel, and about one mile southeast from the northeast corner of soap.

Take notice that Wallace Fisheries Limited, of Vancouver, B.C. occupation cannerymen, intends to apply for a lease of the following prescribed land:

Commencing at a post planted about one miles in a southerly direction from the northeast corner of Lot 8033P; thence south 2.12 degrees; thence west 6.00 degrees, thence north 2.12 degrees, thence easterly meandering along the high water mark to post of commencement, and containing 1.00 acre, more or less.

WALLACE FISHERIES LIMITED, Applicant.

Dated September 26th, 1925.

CASSIAR LAND DISTRICT

Recording District of Telegraph Creek.

TAKE NOTICE that John Jacob Fowler, of Great Glacier, Stikine, rancher, intends to apply for permission to purchase the following described lands:

Commencing at a post planted on the west bank of the Stikine River, near the Great Glacier, at southeast corner; thence in a westerly direction 20 chains; thence in a southerly direction 20 chains; thence in an easterly direction 20 chains, to commencement post.

EDMUND C. STEVENS, Owner, Applicant.

Dated August 21st, 1925.

JOHN JACOB FOWLER.

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT

Notice of Application for Beer License.

TAKE NOTICE that John Jacob Fowler, of Great Glacier, Stikine, rancher, intends to apply for permission to purchase the following described lands:

Commencing at a post planted on the west bank of the Stikine River, near the Great Glacier, at southeast corner; thence in a westerly direction 20 chains; thence in a southerly direction 20 chains; thence in an easterly direction 20 chains, to commencement post.

EDMUND C. STEVENS, Owner, Applicant.

Dated August 21st, 1925.

JOHN JACOB FOWLER.

On the question of Australia's foreign policy Mr. Charlton says Premier Bruce has urged that Australia should have a voice in foreign affairs, which in the Labor leader's opinion, would mean that Australia would be committed to any overseas war that Great Britain decided to enter.

PRESENTATION TO MISS CURTIN MADE AUSTRALIAN ELECTION ON

Appreciation Expressed by "Mikado" Company For Her Services During Rehearsals

Labor Party Led by Matthew Charlton Outlines Its Policies

FOREIGN POLICY

Endowment of Motherhood One of Planks of Present Opposition

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 4.—(By Canadian Press)—Both the Premier of the Commonwealth, Rt. Hon. Stanley M. Bruce, and the Labor Leader, Matthew Charlton, have been campaigning recently in New South Wales, and the federal election contest is warming up, noticeably as the polling date, November 14, draws nearer. It is becoming more apparent daily that the chief issue in the election—at least, so far as the coalition government composed of members of the Nationalist and Country Parties led respectively by Premier Bruce and Hon. Dr. Page, treasurer, is concerned—is the question of Communism.

Premier Bruce continues in his speeches to associate the Labor Party with the Communists, and he criticizes Labor Leader Charlton for not stating definitely, if Labor came into power, what it would do against those who are "trying to subvert the present economic and social system."

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.

Mr. Charlton's defense policy, he claimed, was fundamentally unsound, and it showed such a lack of appreciation of the problems of Australia that, in the Premier's opinion, "it must cause consternation to the whole people."

Mr. Charlton, in his speeches, charges Premier Bruce and Treasurer Page with misrepresenting Labor's attitude towards Communism. He declares that the sole stock-in-trade of these two political leaders consists of fables of social and sectarian horrors which would arise if Labor were to come into power in Australia. He denounces Mr. Bruce's immigration policy on the ground that Australia has a large excess of labor and there are no vast empty spaces except in the desert. It is in the expansion of the home production of articles now imported that ways and means of maintaining a new population must be found, Mr. Charlton says. Labor would co-operate with the State Labor Governments in order to break up large estates for new settlers.

Government Policy

In a recent speech in Sydney Premier Bruce, replying to a speech made by Mr. Charlton in Sydney a few nights previously, said that every constructive suggestion which the Labor leader had made was culled from the policy of the government.</p