MISS ADVANT UNABLE TO SING LAST NIGHT

Good Sized Audience Heard Second Performance of Daughters of Empire Concert

Another good sized audience was present at the Westholme Theatre last night for the second performance of the I.O.D.E. concert. Considerable disappointment was caused through the fact that Miss Adene Advant, suffering from a cold, was unable to take her solo parts. This necessitated some changes being made in the first part of the program and there were solos by S. K. Campbell and Mrs. L. O. Larsen and an exhibition of the Tango by Miss Laura Frizzell and Howard Frizzell. Miss Advant took her part in the Mikado eliminating the solo roles. J. F. Hutchinson acted as announcer of the evening.

HOUSE IS EMPTY BUT NO ONE KNOWS WHY

Curious Dwelling Must Have Been Deserted Suddenly and Taxes Paid Regularly

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 21.—A large house in Kensington is enduring a fate which is somewhat reminiscent of that which befell Satis House in Dicken's "Great Expectations." Twelve years ago this house No. 1, Hyde Park Terrace—was suddenly abandoned by its owner. Throughout this period the local taxes, amounting to something like £200 a year, have been paid through a City Bank on behalf of the owner, Mrs. Janette Oliver Vetch, who is believed to be a wealthy widow, living abroad. No servants have entered the place since it was abandoned, and the last visit of the owner took place six years ago and only lasted a few minutes. Although the mansion has fallen into disrepair it is said to be neither insanitary nor dangerous. Therefore no action is likely to be taken at present. In its present condition the house attracts the attention of people passing along Kensington Road. The blinds have not been lowered, but the dust of many years on the windows almost conceal the damage which is being caused to uncovered furniture and decorations.

What caused the abandonment of the house no one is able to say. Apparently the occupants left in some haste, as it is said the remains of a meal, now covered with mould, are spread upon the table in what was probably the drawing room. No ghost legend attaches to the manson, and there has never been any report of a burglary.

OLD MR. CARTER HELPED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE

"After taking Adlerika I feel better than for years. At my age (60) it is ideal — so different from other medicines." (signed) W. W. Carter. Adlerika is a simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., which removes GAS in ten minutes and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Brings out old waste-matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for chronic constipation. — Ormes Limited, Druggists.
