

ABOUT TOWN

Allstar Fraser returned home yesterday from Montreal where he attended the wedding of his young brother Ian.

Sergeant Art Wales, former head of the city's RCMP detachment, left for Cranbrook today. Sgt. Wales, who was transferred to the Kootenay town only a short time ago, came back to testify at the Assizes. While in town he met many old friends.

Roy Evans left by air this afternoon for Vancouver and Victoria. While in Victoria he will attend a meeting of pulp and paper mill officials and in Vancouver will represent Col. Johnson at a conference of commanding officers of reserve army units.

Father F. J. Rayner left aboard the Camosun early today on one of his periodical trips to northern mining and lumber camps. He will spend this week-end at Alice Arm and next week-end in Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Arntsen left on last night's train for New York where they will board the Norwegian America liner Stavangerfjord on Oct. 16 for a four-month visit to Norway. They will stop off both on their way to, and on their way from their native land at Melville, Saskatchewan, where they will pay a visit to their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eby are expected home Monday or Tuesday from a vacation in the south. They spent part of their time in Vancouver before motoring to Penticton.

Mr. G. North, chief accountant of the Canadian Government Elevator from Fort William, and Mrs. North, spent a few days in the city and left on the Prince George Thursday night for Vancouver.

At a convention of B.C. Credit Bureau Managers held in Kamloops recently, Mrs. Catherine Laurie was appointed a director of the Associated Credit Bureaus for the coming year. Mr. Charlton Smith of the Victoria Credit Bureau is the newly elected president.

Grand Reception to Follow Alaska Music Trail Concert

After the Alaska Music Trail concert Wednesday evening, Sept. 24, there will be a large reception in the gymnasium of the Civic Centre to which the entire audience is invited in order to meet the visiting artists Luigi Silva, Maxim Schapiro, and Bela Urban.

This is an event to be looked forward to as Silva's charm and manner is as well known as Schapiro's fund of interesting stories. Urban, who was a concert favorite with the GI's also enjoys meeting people and making friends.

The reception is being put on by the newly formed Alaska Music Trail Auxiliary, and is their first social undertaking. Mrs. W. S. Kergin, Mrs. Roy Collinson and Mrs. Don Forward are in charge and will be assisted in receiving the guests and introducing them to the artists by Mrs. Catherine Laurie, Miss Rusty Thain, Mrs. Basil Proctor, Mr. A. M. Hurst and Mr. Peter Lien.

Mrs. R. G. Large and Mrs. H. S. Whalen will pour. Mrs. Bill Smith will be in charge of the table, while the servers will be Mrs. R. E. Mortimer, Mrs. R. C. Telford, Mrs. J. Bowman, Mrs. G. E. Freeman, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. E. Wright, Miss E. Vealuski, Miss Lorraine Youngman, Mrs. A. W. Large, and Mrs. G. W.

SKEENA MP PLANS ATLIN VISIT

E. T. Applewhite, Liberal Member of Parliament for Skeena, plans to leave here tomorrow on his annual visit to Atlin and other northern points.

He is scheduled to take the Princess Louise to Skagway, then go by train to Carcross, Y.T., and motor to Atlin. On the return trip he will drive to Whitehorse, Y.T., then fly to Prince George.

Mr. Applewhite is expected to be away about a week.

Pepper Puzzel

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP)—Mrs. A. McLaren is puzzled by her ornamental pepper plant. Last winter it had small red peppers on it and last spring she placed it in the garden. Now a new crop of small peppers are ripening—with bluish purple tinge.
