JOURNALISTIC PASTIME.

(Toronto Star)

A favorite sport of despatch writers nowadays is to name men who might be chosen by Mr. Meighen if he were forming a ministry. And perhaps some day a fond mother may tell her offspring: "Johnny, your grandfather was a 'might be' member of an 'if' cabinet."

SPORT CHAT

Sport events scheduled for this week are as follows:

Monday (tonight)—Cribbage League: Elks vs. P. R. Hotel; G.W.V.A. vs. C.N.R. Mechanical; L.O.L. vs. St. Andrews; S. of C. vs. Moose; Dry Dock vs. K. of C.; C.N.R. Operating vs Cold Storage. Boxing tournament.—Brick Skinner vs. Boots McNeill, and three preliminaries.

Tuesday.—Second Division Billiards: Prince Rupert Fish Co. vs. Great War Veterans Whist League: Postponed game—Elks vs. Loyal Orange Lodge.

Thursday.—Men's Whist League: Moose vs. K. of C.; Sons of England vs. St. Andrew's; Great War Veterans vs. Knights of Pythias; Sons of Canada vs. Oddfellows. Second Division Billiards: Cold Storage vs. Grotto.

The great financial spoils taken this year have led again to talk of the formation of a third major baseball league in the United States. It is thought that the leading International and American Association clubs might merge their interests and a six-club nucleus for the third major league is suggested with clubs from Baltimore, Buffalo, Toronto, Kansas City, Louisville and Milwaukee. It is said that there are many big financiers ready and even anxious to invest their money in such a new baseball venture. Twelve years ago there was a third major league—the Federal—but it failed on account of mismanagement although it worried the National and American Leagues a good deal before it was through.

Taking it on the whole, local nimrods are having a pretty successful season of it both from the standpoint of deer and game birds. The most successful parties, however, are those that go the farther afield and as a result trips of a week or so's duration to such points as Porche Island, Hartley Bay, Gardner Canal, etc. are more in vogue this year than ever before. The local deer season closes on November 30, and the season for ducks and geese on December 31. South of 52 degrees latitude (about Bella Bella) the seasons remain open until January 31 and February 15 respectively.

One of the most important matters to be discussed at a meeting of the major baseball league which is called for December 10 by Commissioner Landis will be the question of closing the league campaigns and staging the world series earlier than has been the custom in the past. Commissioner Landis is in favor of closing the season earlier, starting the world series possibly a week sooner, to avoid conflicting with the football season and the club owners if they agree may do so without cutting down their usual schedules of 154 games. President Ban Johnson of the American League also favors an earlier closing but the National League last year opposed such a move.
