MURDER CASE IS REVEALED

Man Converted by Salvation Army at Edmonton Confesses He Shot Child in Back

MANIA FOR KILLING

EDMONTON, Nov. 28.—How a sermon "A Guilty Conscience," preached at the Salvation Army barracks in the city a few days ago, led a penitent to the mercy seat and later brought to the surprised police authorities a confession that he was guilty of the murder of a little girl, is revealed in the case of William Lewis, aged 28, who is now held by the provincial police in Edmonton. He has been taken by the authorities to Olds for preliminary hearing.

The man has made a full confession of the murder, which took place last year, to the provincial police, and this will be placed in evidence by Detective Skelton, who will be in charge of the case. During the past three days the story as set out in the confession has been fully investigated by Inspector Piper, of the Edmonton detachment acting in conjunction with Inspector Brankley, of Calgary, and has satisfied them that the facts revealed are such as to warrant the man being placed on his trial.

It is said that Lewis is quite reconciled to accept any punishment that may be given to him.

Murder in July, 1924.

The confession was first made to Ensign Stewart of the Salvation Army, and two Edmonton detectives, in the ensign's house when he stated that he murdered an eight-year-old girl, Hilda Craddock, at Bowden, Alberta, in July, 1924. The little girl's home was in Vermillion and she had been visiting relations at the time of her death.

According to the report Lewis stated that he wished to make the confession because the matter had preyed on his mind ever since.

In July, 1924, he stated, he was a farm hand employed by Mr. Craddock. He was annoyed by birds making a noise outside his bedroom window. One day he went out with a rifle to shoot some of the birds, and he went into a field accompanied by the little girl.

Shot Through Head

"She walked ahead of him and he deliberately shot her through the beack of the head, killing her on the spot," the report of the confession states.

An inquest was held, at which Lewis gave evidence that the whole thing was an accident, and the jury recorded accordingly.

Further, he is alleged to have stated that when out shooting with a man last fall he was tempted to shoot him, but managed to control himself by walking in front of the man all the time.

MRS. MARRINIER

Weeping Eczema relieved by "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MRS. JOS. P. MARRINIER

"For three years I suffered with weeping Eczema on the back of my hands. I consulted our family doctor and other physicians, but all the treatments and salves prescribed gave me no permanent relief. When baby came, I was afraid that he too would be affected. I had practically considered my case hopeless when I started to use "Fruit-a-tives" and "Sootha-Salva." In a short time the eczema completely disappeared, baby has always been wonderfully well, and I have not had a trace of it for four years."
—Mrs. Jos. P. Marrinier, 452 Arlington Ave., Ottawa, Ont.

This marvelous fruit medicine helps the bowels and kidneys to rid the system of waste, and cleanses the blood stream so that the pure, rich blood soon heals the itching, inflamed skin. "Fruit-a-tives" are obtainable in all drug stores, at 25c. and 50c. a box. If "Sootha-Salva," (50c. a box), is not obtainable at your dealer's, order it direct from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PRINCE JOHN WAS DELAYED BY FOG

C.N.R. Steamer Arrived from Vancouver and Islands with Heavy Freight Cargo this Morning

After having been held up in Massett Inlet for almost two whole days on account of exceptionally heavy fogs, C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. E. Mabbs, arrived in port at 11 o'clock this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. Apart from the fog, the vessel had a smooth and uneventful trip up the coast in contrast to the very rough voyage she had on her last passage south. Having brought a rather heavy freight cargo including 300 tons of coal for the dry dock, lumber for shipment up river and tile for the elevator and having considerable goods to load here, it is not likely the John will sail from here on her return to the Islands and Vancouver before tomorrow night. Among those booked to sail from here on the vessel are R. M. McKenzie and J. D. McIntyre for Port Clements; J. E. Milne, Mrs. A. A. Duval and Master C. Duval for Queen Charlotte City, and A. C. Johnson and A. Johnson for Lockeport.

WANT CRYSTAL GARDENS TO BE OPENED SUNDAYS

VICTORIA, Nov. 27. — The Tourist Trade Group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce went on record as unanimously in favor of opening of the Crystal Garden swimming pool on Sundays and passed a resolution urging the directors of the Chamber to approach the officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway in an attempt to have this arranged.

It was suggested by members of the group that the Lord's Day Alliance might have some objection, but it was pointed out that churchmen in this city had taken a broadminded view of the Sunday entertainments here in the past and that it was likely there would be no opposition to the Sunday opening of the pool if the permission of the C.P.R. could be obtained.

SUSPECT TRACKED TO LAIR IN SNOW

EDMONTON, Nov. 28.—How a suspect was tracked nearly 30 blocks in the fresh snow of Monday night to his place of residence at 12212 85 street by city police officers, and arrested in the early hours of Tuesday morning is revealed in the case of one Pete Markoff who came before the court on a charge of attempted shopbreaking.

Shortly before midnight Constable Foster, on duty in the east end, found that an attempt had been made to enter the store of Union Meat and Grocery from the rear, by means of a jimmy. He reported to headquarters and Sergeant Watson and Detectives Smith and Munro were detailed to investigate. They picked up the footsteps and traced them up to the northeast end of the city. Eventually they were led to the house where Markoff was staying and when they found that his boots made marks which were similar to the imprints at the rear of the store, he was arrested.

DOCTOR AND DENTIST FREE TO INDIGENTS

That is Scheme of Hon. George Hoadley, Alberta Minister of Public Health

EDMONTON, Nov. 28—Declaring that by the time of the next sessions of the provincial legislature, perhaps in January, he expected that some scheme will have been evolved making available medical and dental service for the poorest people in the province on an equality basis for all, Hon. George Hoadley, minister of public health in the provincial government, struck a popular note at the annual convention of the Municipal Districts Hospital Association, in the Memorial Hall.

"To protect humanity is the greatest purpose we must have in view," declared the Hon. Geo. Hoadley. "If efficiently and economically carried out, the municipal hospital is one of the greatest aids humanity can have in building up good health."

In declaring that there was a necessity in the province for everyone to be able to have available medical and dental attention at a cost that would be within reach of all, he said that he expected some system would be evolved ere long to settle this problem. At present there were not doctors and dentists enough to cope with the activities of the hospitals.

Of the burden of care of the indigent in illness the minister said that it was unfair to saddle this care on hospitals and doctors. There should be some means of absorbing these burdens in a fair and equitable way, and this would always be one of the thoughts he would have as long as he was interested in this work.
