MURDOCK SHOW SEEMS CLEVER

Oriental Show Attracting Large Audiences at Westholme Theatre

Murdock, "Famous White Mahatma," with his own company and "Show of Wonders" is drawing capacity houses at the Westholme Theatre. His production is quite unique, and it is evident that, during his engagement here which continues for two more days, he will have many people in Prince Rupert guessing and thinking.

The offering is divided into two parts. The first part discloses an Oriental stage setting, "The Temple Scene of India" with burning incense, hanging tapestries and beautifully costumed dancing girls who present a prologue to the act itself. Then follows a demonstration of telepathy and concentration. Several effects that are truly "brain twisters" are presented in lightning rapidity. One that deserves special mention is his version of "Spirit Paintings." During the course of this experiment, Murdock produces before the eyes of his audience, the exact "Spirit Picture" of any person living or dead; this is seen to materialize upon ordinary blank canvasses which have been marked and examined by members of the audience.

Where Murdock excels is during his "Crystal Seance" in the course of which he answers any question asked by his hearers. His answers are rapid, startling and convincing, often they contain an element of humor and pathos. That he delights in this particular field of endeavor is evidenced with the spontaneity and philosophy expressed in his answers. Questions covering practically every subject were answered last night. Those pertaining to love, business, changes, vocations, lost articles, missing relatives, journeys, etc., were all covered quickly.

Here are more of Murdock's questions and answers:

Magician, billed as "The White Mahatma," whose unusual show at the Westholme Theatre presents effects that have not been seen previously in Prince Rupert. Murdock opened his engagement here on Monday and will give his last show Thursday with a ladies matinee in the afternoon.

health improve? Ans.: She will, provided you go home at once. You have failed to keep your promise by not writing to her and now she is ill, simply worried over you.

H.T.—Why is "A" peeved at me? Answer: Because sometime last week, in order to avoid a rather embarrassing situation, you told her that you were going out to your sister's house. She saw you that same evening at the theatre with "B."

G.S.—What became of the boat that I lost last season? Answer: The boat struck an iceberg near Taku. All of the crew were drowned.

R.G.—Do you think I could marry that girl that I have been keeping company with the last two years? Answer: Yes, if you can get up enough courage to "Pop the question to her." All she is waiting for is a chance.

U. T. A.—Should I make the change I am contemplating? Answer: I would not advise you to. If you stay where you are, conditions will soon greatly improve.

S.H.—Do you think that I will get the ring he promised me? Answer: You will get it provided you don't make a mess of it by letting him think you are greatly concerned over it.

I.M.—Where is the ring I lost yesterday? Answer: It is still in your home, look in the small wicker basket on your dresser and you will find it.

P.J.B.—Have I any living relatives? Answer: No.

Leaving Rupert

Q.A.—When will I leave Rupert and will I go alone? Answer: You will leave next week with your brother.

M.O.—Will my health improve? Answer: Your trouble is all mental. There is nothing wrong with you. You pay too much attention to what others tell you.

K.K.—Do you advise an operation? Answer: An operation in your case is not necessary. If you would be careful of your eating for a few weeks this condition would improve.

F.S.—Do you believe in predestination? Answer: No, not in the sense that you do. I believe that you can make of your life what you will it to be. You are master of your own fate, Captain of your own destiny.

Private Matter

D.E.—Did "G" tell me the truth the other evening? Answer: Better see me privately about this matter.

A.I.O.—Who did my husband go out with Sunday night about eight o'clock? Answer: I do not care to give the name or initial of this woman through this paper as she is very well known here in Prince Rupert. I would suggest that you ask this question during the "ladies matinee" Thursday.

O.W.—Would you advise me to take the journey I am now planning? Answer: You will take the trip abroad, so go ahead and complete your plans.

TO HANDLE HARVESTERS

Railway Companies Large Movement to Prairies this Fall

MONTREAL, July 15.—Early preparations are being made this year to cope with the situation in the west as far as the harvesting of the wheat crop is concerned. From early spring it has been realized that the 1925 crop would be considerably in excess of that harvested last year and now, while no definite estimates can yet be made, it is expected that the crop will approach 375,000,000 bushels. If anything approaching this figure is reached it is apparent that it will be necessary to import a large number of harvest workers into the west to help handle it. Much of course still depends upon continued favorable conditions, but regardless of what transpires in the meantime the Canadian Railways are proceeding with their arrangements for the operation of harvesters excursions on the assumption that there is to be a bumper crop.

Already several preliminary meetings have been held between railway officials and government representatives with the result that it is now estimated that between 45,000 and 50,000 harvesters will be needed in the prairie provinces in addition to those available locally. In fact, the total estimate of help required in the west is 60,000 but several provinces figure that they can meet a part of these requirements by men available in the west. A meeting will be held at Winnipeg July 24, attended by officials of the various governments of the western provinces and representatives of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific at which more definite figures will be arrived at and this meeting will be followed by the formulation of the plans for obtaining and transporting the harvesters.

The arrangements for handling harvesters will be practically the same as in former years except on a larger scale, every available car of the colonist type will be pressed into use by both roads and the usual arrangements will be made to look after the comforts of the excursionists.

Robert Murray, of Victoria, Dominion government fruit and vegetable inspector is spending some time at Terrace, Remo and Vanarsdol giving the farmers information upon the growing, shipping and packing of strawberries and small fruits.

Mr. Murray says it is wonderful land for the growing of small fruits and vegetables and all that is needed is a little help and advice to farmers along the right lines.

The strawberry crop is looking very good at the present time in the Terrace district especially so at Vanarsdol and Remo.

A meeting was held on Saturday night by the growers at which Mr. Murray gave the farmers of the district some useful information. In addition to the holding of a general meeting the inspector will visit each farmer personally and give him advice.

Don't Judge from Appearances!

THE earth looks flat enough! That's why so many thousand years came and went before our ancestors even suspected the terrestrial globe of being round. Their eyes deceived them!

Don't depend on appearances to guide you right. Don't buy goods on the strength of looks alone. Merchandise with a well-known name has the call. Only the maker of a good product can afford to advertise his name. Attempts to popularize unworthy goods cannot succeed.

Wise merchants and manufacturers seek the good papers to tell the stories of their wares. The publishers seek the reputable advertising for their readers guidance. Well-informed buyers seek news of good merchandise through the columns of the best papers.

This proves the value of advertising. Neither advertiser nor publisher can prosper without your patronage. Therefore, it is to their advantage to cater to you. They do it, too.

It is distinctly to your advantage to be guided by the messages they lay before you—the advertisements.

Read them regularly!

The country is known as the hunter's paradise, while the lakes and rivers abound in all kinds of fish, which as yet have scarcely been fished by the white man.

The country lends itself as an ideal place to retire from active business for a delightful holiday and recreation.
