WOMEN COMING INTO THEIR OWN

Entitled to Same Pay for Same Work as Men, Lady Attorney Says

MONTREAL, July 30.—"Women who are as capable as men, will be paid salaries equal to those of men who are doing similar work, before very long," said Miss Dorothy A. Moncreu, attorney in the War Department at Washington and president of the Phi-Delta-Delta Women's Legal Fraternity of the United States, interviewed while in the city.

"In George Washington University alone there are 150 girls studying law. To enter the law course in the next year or so, although at the present time one may study law after having taken only two years of the arts course. Policewomen take up law to improve their general activities, and many girls who aspire to leading positions in the government, study law as it leads them to better things and makes their work more interesting. Most of the women lawyers in Washington favor civil cases, although women are adapted also to the criminal cases. Twenty-five women at the United States capital are practising law very successfully on their own account and have proved an inspiration to the hundreds of girls in the United States who enter law schools every year."

GRAIN BOARD ON COAST TO MAKE SHIPPING SURVEY

Leslie Boyd, chairman of the board of grain commissioners, has arrived in Vancouver this week and will make a general survey of grain handling facilities on the Pacific coast. He is accompanied by Commissioner S. Robinson and the secretary, F. J. Rathbone. No public hearings will be held and it is the intention to make the survey more or less privately. The board, it is expected, will visit Prince Rupert before returning east.

NEW STEAMER DUE HERE TONIGHT OR FRIDAY MORNING

The new Union steamer Catala, making her maiden trip to Prince Rupert and northern canneries this evening or early tomorrow morning. The vessel, which is in command of Capt. A. Johnstone, formerly of the Venture, is understood to have some officials of the Union Steamship Co. aboard as well as several round trip passengers. The Catala was in Milbank Sound this morning and it is expected that she will make her Skeena River calls before coming here.

EQUAL TO THE OCCASION

On entering the kitchen early one morning the mistress saw a plate and knife and fork, the former of which had evidently contained cold pie. The mistress suspected a certain policeman of having supped off it, and the following conversation took place between her and the cook.

"Mary, what has become of the cold pie that was left?"

"Oh, I didn't think it was wanted, mum, and so I gave it to the dog."

"Does the dog use a knife and fork?" the mistress inquired sarcastically.

"Not very well, mum, but I'm teaching him to," was the unabashed reply.

Sport Chat

Without offering any criticism of any one, it is to be regretted that matters in football circles have turned out as badly as they have of late. For the sake of sport, another effort should be made to straighten out any differences which may exist in order that the game may not suffer. It is unfortunate that in a town of this size such small numbers are attracted to the matches. There seems to be a feeling that a little diplomacy on the part of all concerned would assist in placing this great game on a better footing than at present.

Interest continues to increase in the baseball games at Aeropolis, and the teams certainly have the backing of a large number of patrons who wish to see a good brand of baseball, irrespective of what teams are playing. The teams are very evenly balanced which should assure good games for the remainder of the season. The next fixture will be on Friday night between the Gyro Club and Sons of Canada.

Jack Miner, the famous Canadian naturalist, and Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, spend their vacations together late in the Fall in the big game woods of Northern Ontario. They have been doing so for the past five years according to a story written in the Victoria Colonist. They pitch their tents between railway stations to ensure strictest privacy and Jack Miner hoists a Union Jack so the trainmen may know where to throw off his and Ty's mail. Jack Miner visited Prince Rupert last week with the Buchanan Boys who were making a trip to Alaska.

WHAT HE WOULD DO
In an army school the instructor gave the following as a subject for composition:—"What would you do if you had $5,000 or more left you?"

Some time later he observed that one student had not made a start and inquired whether his pen was in working order. Being assured it was, he asked, "Why have you not started the lesson?"

The smart youth replied, "I've finished."

"Finished," said the sergeant; "why, you've done nothing."

"That is just what I would do if I had $5,000 left me," came the emphatic retort.
