FISHERMEN ON TARIFF

Unanimity for Reduction Was Feature of Seattle Hearing says Local Union Agent

A feature of the evidence presented at the halibut tariff conference in Seattle last week was that American and Canadian fishermen alike were desirous of a reduction in the tariff being made, states J. H. Meagher, local agent for the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union who, accompanied by Mrs. Meagher, returned to the city this morning on the Prince Charles after attending the conference. Mr. Meagher himself had a petition, containing some 140 names about equally divided between American and Canadian fishermen, asking for a reduction in the tariff. There was a similar petition from Petersburg, Alaska, and it was notable that Ketchikan, which staged the most bitter fight for the continuation of the present tariff, had no petition from fishermen asking that the tariff be maintained.

As far as the Canadian fishermen were concerned, Mr. Meagher says that it was made plain that, unless there was a reduction in the tariff on Canadian fish entering the United States, the fight for the closing of Canadian Pacific ports to American fish would be continued.

Despite bitter opposition, against tariff reduction, Mr. Meagher is hopeful that such may be recommended in the commission's report to the President of the United States.

UNIQUE OPENING OF ALBERTA HOSPITAL

Indians Participated Prominently in Recent Function at Rife

EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 17.—(Canadian Press)—At the opening of the Red Cross Outpost hospital at Rife, Alta., recently, the celebration was of a unique nature, the Indians coming in from the reserve to assist. The admission tickets were sold by chief Red Blanket, Chief Young Chief, aged 86 years, also lent dignity to the occasion by his presence. A small hog sold by auction for $26.50, a box of candy for $13.50, a blue kitten for $5 and a June bride doll, $15.75. There was a creditable display of butter, bread and cakes and home-made articles of clothing. An Indian woman donated a quilt made from the empty tobacco sacks collected at the Mounted Police Barracks at Onion Lake. This quilt took ten years to make, and is a striking example of Indian patience. The quilt will be sent to the tobacco company. The hospital under the management of Miss Anderson will provide valuable assistance to the settlers.

DUNWELL MINE TO SELL STOCK

Company Proposes to Continue Its Own Operations Instead of Selling

VICTORIA, Aug. 17.—The Dunwell shareholders are proposing to develop their own property instead of selling it. A meeting of shareholders is to be held next week when a concrete proposal will be laid before them by the directors. The general scheme as discussed now is as follows:

The mine is to be retained under the present directorate and developed, the necessary funds to be raised by the sale of more stock.

A prominent engineer is to be engaged to have charge of the work with a view to placing the property on a shipping basis immediately or as soon as possible.

Present shareholders are to have first opportunity to purchase new stock at par.

For several months past the company has been making an effort to sell the property outright at such a price as would give the shareholders a good return on their invested capital. This having failed it is decided by them to operate the mine themselves and develop it as a purely British Columbia property.

When the possible sale of the property was first announced the price of the stock jumped, but as the sale did not materialize and the shareholders realized it they began to unload and the price became depressed until today it is worth less than half what it was a month or two ago.

If the directors show that they can command the money market and raise the necessary money to carry on, the price of this stock should again rise. The value is still there.

ONTARIO'S POWER WIZARD DIES AFTER WORK HAD BEEN CARRIED ON WITH SUCCESS MANY YEARS.

Ontario Legislature as member for London in the General Election of 1923, and was appointed Minister without Portfolio in the government of Hon. G. Howard Ferguson.

"Remember Beck $6,000,000 is the limit," Sir James Whitney is said to have cautioned Beck when the first government guarantee of hydro bonds was demanded. Mr. Beck found little difficulty in getting the Whitney limit raised to hundreds of millions after he had shown him what he could do. The first provincially owned current from Niagara was turned on in the town of Berlin, now of Kitchener, in 1910. The second transmission line was built to Toronto. Beck continued to represent London in the Legislature until 1919 when he went down with the Conservative party in the Provincial general election. He was retained by the Drury U.F.O. Labor Government however, as chairman of the Power Commissions, in which capacity he at that time was paid a salary of $18,000 a year.

Broke with Farmers

Sir Adam Beck's plans in Hydro affairs met with setbacks under the Drury United Farmer Government, particularly with reference to Hydro Electric Railways. A Royal Commission, after several months of investigation, recommended against building certain radial railways under provincial guarantees, and thereupon took issue with the Hydro Commission and Sir Adam Beck. This report caused a certain division between Sir Adam and the government when the latter made it clear that they were inclined to accept the Royal Commission's report as the one to follow.

Then there was the break over the cost of the Chippawa project and while the Drury Government did not stop the work there it held up the latest advance of three and a half million dollars until the legislature could vote on it. Sir Adam defended the stand of the Hydro Commission with characteristic vigor, attacked the Royal Commission's report and defended the Hydro Commission's expenditures.

P. W. Anderson, road superintendent, returned to the city on the Prince John today after having made his annual tour of inspection on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

MEN ON COMOX AVENUE GAVE OFFICER SLIP

Early this morning a call was rung into the police station from Comox Avenue where two men were said to be breaking a door and windows in the residence of Ruth Vernon, Sergeant Bailey responded and, on arrival, gave chase to the two men. One, John Tantaville, showed fight and kicked the officer in the stomach and face before he and the other man, A. Esselin, got away. This all happened about 5:30. An emergency call was sent for Sergeant McGlinchey, the stalwart of the force, and by 2:25 he had both the men under arrest. They will come up for trial tomorrow on charges of resisting arrest, doing wilful damage and assault.
