Having been delayed by fogs prevailing down the coast at the end of the week, C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, Capt. Anderson, arrived from the south at 8:30 last night—over 24 hours late—and, after discharging local cargo, returned to Vancouver and wayports.

Another successful Scandinavian dance was held Saturday evening in the Metropole Hall. Music was furnished by Hans Lindseth and his orchestra. There was also a Scandinavian dance in the Boston Hall for which music was furnished by Reider Anderson, accordionist.

The motorship Tilamook, well known locally, which was recently purchased by the Northern Fisheries Co. of Seattle and Ketchikan from the Canadian National Railway, has been renamed the Norco. She ran satisfactory trials on Puget Sound last Thursday. The vessel is to be used it is understood in freighting between Seattle and Alaska ports and possibly Prince Rupert.

Having experienced the worst weather since she entered the Alaska service, C.N.R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Neil McLean, returned this morning from Skagway and wayports at 10:30. The vessel, going north, had considerable fog, at Skagway it was beautiful weather but from Wrangell down yesterday it was very stormy and early this morning the vessel got quite a dusting in Dixon Entrance. The Prince Charles brought south a large number of passengers most of whom went south on the Prince George which was held pending her arrival.
