LADIES' NIGHT AT GYRO CLUB

Banquet, Bridge and Dance Held Last Night in Boston Hall

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club held its first "ladies' night" last evening when wives of the members and friends were entertained at a banquet, bridge party and dance in the Boston Hall. The affair was a jolly one and there were some seventy persons in attendance. President McNaughton was in the chair, Stan Taylor was chairman of the committee in charge, Lionel Holtby was master of ceremonies and Gyros generally assisted.

In the course of the dinner there was community singing under the direction of S. K. Campbell. The only toast of the evening was that to "The Gyrettes" which was proposed by Eddie Mann and observed with the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" by the Gyros. President McNaughton announced that George Shaw and Douglas Frizzell had been elected members of the club and then administered the Gyro pledge to these new members. Miss Nada Johnstone, accompanied by Miss Blanche Curtin, sang a solo and was encored.

Music for the dance was supplied by an orchestra consisting of Miss Marjorie Lancaster, Howard White and Kenny Rood which also played selections during the dinner and accompanied the community singing.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Naughton, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greer, Douglas Stork, Miss Nada Johnstone, Dr. E. S. Tait, Stan Taylor, Geo. TERRACE BRIDGE OPENED TUESDAY

Vancouver Board of Trade also Visits Strawberry Centre

TERRACE, B.C., July 23. — The Vancouver Board of Trade accompanied by four or five Prince Rupert men, after an excellent breakfast left for a drive through the country, visiting the Lanfear place, down to Kalum and over to Frank's place, then back past Kieth's place and over the bridge to Michauds, where they spent half an hour then back to the bridge for the formal opening. Formalities were opened by Chairman Hatt with a few well chosen remarks, then Dr. Wrinch, M.L.A. was introduced as the first speaker. Dr. Wrinch likened the bridge to a link in the chain which was to form the trans-provincial highway. When other links in the road between Terrace and Hazelton were completed one would be able to drive a car from Terrace to Vancouver. This was one reason for building the bridge and is sufficient in itself, aside from the value locally.

Mr. Pattullo followed and gave a short speech along the same lines, telling of how he had worked to procure the bridge of its benefit to the country and especially to the locality. He spoke about the Trans-B.C. road and formally declared the bridge open.

A most delicious luncheon was served, demonstrating with its delicate fried fish, strawberries, thick cream, not to mention salad and potatoes, the resources of the district. After the lunch the speakers were introduced by Mr. Hatt. There were a large number on the list.

Sport Chat

Connie Mack's Athletics are now perched at the top of the American League. Whether Mack will be able to keep his bunch there will depend a great deal upon the next few games which Washington play. Pittsburg has nosed out the Giants who were leaders in the National League earlier in the season. It is an interesting contest in both leagues for the premier position, and will be followed closely by the numerous fans everywhere. Boston continues to hold the cellar position in both leagues.

Tonight's baseball game should be easily worth the price of admission when the Sons of Canada and the Mill meet in a regular league fixture. Lidstone will be on the mound for the Mill and Schlenker for the Sons. When these teams last met it was a pitchers' battle ending in a tie score. Will the Sons be able to continue their record of not having tasted defeat this year?

The Sons of England will again try their luck with the Callies in the Senior League football fixture at Acropolis Hill grounds tomorrow night. The Sons, so far in the league series, have not been playing as good soccer as they did in the Stuart Shield series this being, in a measure, due to the fact that they have been having difficulty in fielding teams to full strength. Fans are hoping that they will do better from now and the Sons, themselves, are hopeful that there may be a turn in the tide. The following team is announced for the Sons of England tomorrow night: Howlett; R. Howe and G. Howe; Anderson, Bales and Waugh; Farquhar, Dickens, Johnson, Hanson, Hodgkinson and Cameron.
