Two Canneries at Port Essington Going up in Smoke; Town Menaced

According to word received this afternoon at 3.30 through the Dominion Government Telegraphs, the B.A. Cannery at Port Essington is going up in smoke and there is grave danger of the whole town being wiped out. The operator at haysport reported to headquarters here that flames were leaping twenty feet in the air and there was a high wind blowing down the Skeena River.

Haysport, called on long distance by The News, said at 3.40 that B.A. Cannery was burning and Skeena Commercial as well. Both plants would be consumed, it was expected. The wind changed to southwest and was blowing away from town.

Both B.A. and Skeena Commercial Canneries are operated by the Bell Irving Co.

Wholesalers in South and Rupert Merchants Victimized by Fraud

George C. McAllister is arrested on charges of realizing cash on worthless checks

VANCOUVER, July 23-Nearly one hundred merchants and citizens of Vancouver having been victimized by means of worthless checks and merchants of Prince Rupert having been loaded down with goods shipped from here that they did not order, the police are now holding George C. McAllister on definite charges in connection with the issuance of some of the checks. McAllister appeared in police court here yesterday morning and was remanded for one week.

Investigation shows that a man, claiming to be a partner of a Prince Rupert merchant, visit- ----ed numerous wholesale houses and ordered large bills of goods, tendering checks and receiving GOLD STRIKE the excess of the checks over the orders in cash. Meantime the startled merchants of Prince Rupert found every boat bringgoods which they had no use for and which they could not dispose of. Finally local wholesale merchants were wired to accept no further orders.
