ENGLISHMEN WON SOCCER

Cold Storage Fell Down Rather Badly in Gilhuly Cup Game Last Evening

The Cold Storage failed to put up as good a brand of football in last night's Gilhuly Cup game as they did earlier in the week with the Callies and they were defeated by the Sons of England 2 to 1. The Sons played fair soccer but that exhibited by the men from the fish plant was very ragged, lack of combination being the most apparent fault.

In the first half the Cold Storage had the grade and sun in its favor but failed to score while the Sons made two goals in rapid succession. Both were close-in shots, the first by Gurvich and the second by J. Johnson. In the second half, Norrington scored the one and only for the Cold Storage when he put the sphere into the goal over the head of Dick Howe who had failed to clear.

There was a small crowd in attendance.

George Cochrane was referee and the linesmen were George Kelsey and McGee.

The line-ups were as follows:

Cold Storage— A. Murray; C. Whatman and D. Jack; J. Corbett, J. Sim and A. Macdonald; S. Erskine, A. Harvey, C. Wiper, S. Elder and C. Norrington.

Sons of England—D. Howe; G. Waugh and G. Howe; H. Hansen, A. Bales and P. Doherty; Bert Long, Frank Russell, J. Johnson, A. Dickens and Dido Gurvich.

The Gilhuly Cup standing to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pts.
Callies	2	0	4
S. of E.	2	1	4
Cold Storage	0	3	0

BRITISH TEACHERS OPPOSED TO SCHEME

R. Orford, One of Speakers at Vancouver, Says Keep Parents and Teachers Apart

VANCOUVER, Aug. 22—Speaking at a banquet at the Grosvenor Hotel given Monday by Vancouver School Board in honor of the party of British school teachers touring Canada under auspices of the League of the Empire, R. Orford, of London, representing the elementary schools of England, expressed spirited opposition to the Parent-Teacher Federation, the lady vice-president of which had spoken earlier and explained the objects of that association.

"Your scheme," Mr. Orford declared, "can never be a success in England because the less we see of parents, the better."

He added they were not enamored by the Parent-Teachers' organization, as they were convinced that the further parents and teachers kept apart, the better would it be for all concerned, and especially for the child,

CECIL B. DEMILLE'S CINEMASTERPIECE

"The Ten Commandments"

A mighty dramatic spectacle of all the ages ranging from the splendours and orgies of the Pharaohs to the humour and tragedy of this jazz-mad era. A photo-play with settings ancient and modern. Many Biblical scenes are enacted with amazing faithfulness of detail, foremost of which are the exodus of the Children of Israel from Egypt and their sojourn in the Sinaitic wilderness, also their crossing of the Red Sea and the engulfing of the hosts of Pharaoh. Thousands of people are engaged in this gigantic production. The animals include 900 horses, 200 burros, 50 camels, 1,000 cattle, 500 sheep and goats, 300 fowl and ducks and 50 dogs. 16 miles of cloth made up over 3,000 costumes and 3 tons of leather made up 250 sets of chariot harness. A picture that will never fade from the memory. It is the show that broke all long run records.

Huge cast of principals: Richard Dix, Rod La Roque, Theodore Roberts, Charles de Roche, James Neill, Charles Ogle, Terrence Moore, Robert Edeson, Leatrice Joy, Estelle Taylor, Julia Faye, Agnes Ayres, Nita Naldi, Edythe Chapman and many others.
