SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR SMITHERS THIS WEEK

Number of Ladies Aided in Selling Articles and Serving Tea

SMITHERS, Nov. 21. — The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. James Anglican Church held a most successful bazaar and sale of work in the Town Hall Wednesday afternoon. The several very tastefully decorated booths and tea room were well patronized by the public and the ladies as a reward of their endeavors had the pleasure of adding around $150 to their fund for assisting in carrying on church work.

Mrs. R. W. Champion is president of the Auxiliary and among the ladies working with her were: Mrs. W. Dawson and Mrs. F. Ockleshaw at the home cooking table; Mrs. D. D. Rolston and Mrs. H. G. Windt at the fancy work stall; Mrs. S. H. Hoskins and Mrs. J. M. Adams at the grab bag; Mrs. C. Ried and Mrs. H. J. Kelly at the candy booth; Mrs. A. E. Campbell at the stork booth, while Mrs. R. Raabe and Mrs. F. Page had charge of the tea room with several of the Sunday school girls acting as waitresses, and Mrs. D. Simpson as cashier.

A nicely decorated fruit cake donated by the Newbery Bakery was the prize in a guessing contest and was won by Mrs. J. R. McIntyre and Miss Ruth Miller, who each had guessed the same weight which was nearest correct. The cake weighed 8 lbs. 6 oz. During the afternoon Mr. H. Scharwiz, the tailor, raffled a piece of dress goods; this was won by Mrs. G. Carruthers.

SHOWER WAS GIVEN FOR NEWLY MARRIED COUPLE AT TERRACE

TERRACE, Nov. 21—The members of Mountain View Rebekha Lodge and Lakelse I.O.O.F. joined forces on Wednesday evening in honoring two of their members, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kircaldy, who were married recently. About forty members met in the G.W.V.A. Hall and "showered" them with a splendid array of kitchen necessities. The presentation was made by J. P. Eggleshaw and fittingly responded to by Mr. Kircaldy. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music, games and dancing. Refreshments were served by the members of the Rebekhas.

TERRACE NOTES

After having spent the past week on a business trip to the coast, Constable J. P. Eggleshaw passed through Terrace on Friday en route to Hazelton. He returned home on Saturday.

F. W. Allen and A. C. Knight, representatives of the Hudson's Bay Co., Vancouver, were in town at the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kircaldy have taken up their residence in the home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creelman. Quite a large crowd of friends of the young couple gathered on Friday evening and serenaded them with the usual tin can band, with the result they were invited to come in and partake of a bountiful supply of refreshments provided by the host in readiness for the occasion.

In compliment to her sister, Mrs. Kincaid of Seattle who is soon leaving Terrace, after visiting here for the past three months, Mrs. Geo. Little entertained at afternoon tea on Monday. Mrs. Greig presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Dover assisted in serving refreshments. Several vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Munro and Mrs. Kincaid and an enjoyable social hour spent.

In compliment to Mrs. L. Kincaid of Seattle, Mrs. C. R. Gilbert entertained at luncheon on Saturday. Her guests were Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Little, Mrs. J. K. Gordon, Mrs. O. T. Sundal and Mrs. Geo. Dover.

R. L. McIntosh, who has been spending a few days at his summer home here returned on Sunday to his home in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Geo. Keith entertained at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. L. Kincaid, sister of Mrs. Geo. Little. Besides the guest of honor other guests were Mrs. Geo. Little, Mrs. Sundal and Mrs. Dover.

Angus Bruce, brother of Donald Bruce, and one of the early pioneers of this district, arrived in town on Monday from the state of Washington.

Vernon Eby, of Smithers, spent Tuesday in town.

Billy Attwood Jr. arrived home from the Hazelton Hospital on Tuesday morning.

A. Goodenough of Smithers was a business visitor on Tuesday.

Jas. Turnbull, Hazelton, returned to Terrace on Tuesday. He is here in the interests of the Hanson Timber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kenney entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening when six tables were engaged. High scores for the evening were made by Mrs. Aldous and L. H. Kenney. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brooks returned on Wednesday after having made the triangular trip over the C.N.R., stopping off at the more important centres. Mr. Brooks, who has been assistant at the C.N.R. station here, is being transferred to Hutton to which place they expect to go in the near future. Both he and Mrs. Brooks will be much missed among the younger set here.

E. Cavenaile and A. C. Clarenbeau of Prince Rupert who have been spending some time at the former's ranch at Lost Lake, returned home on Tuesday.

A. G. Bowie, relieving agent of the Dominion Telegraph Co., arrived from Hazelton on Sunday and spent a few days here with friends, continuing on to Prince Rupert on Wednesday. He returned to Terrace again on Wednesday night.

George Little, H. H. Hopper and C. L. Giggey made a trip to the mining camp at Vanarsdol on Wednesday.

Mrs. Aldous entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Little's sister, Mrs. Kincaid. Her guests were Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Sundal and Mrs. Hatt.

The heavy rains of the last few days are playing havoc with the roads, but are being welcomed by many whose wells are either entirely dry or nearly so. The water is lower this fall than for a number of years.

Mrs. L. Kincaid of Seattle was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. M. Hatt on Thursday.

J. K. Frost returned on Wednesday night from a business trip to Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Aldous had the misfortune to fall on her way to town on Thursday and injured her arm quite badly.

Mrs. Geo. Dover was a tea hostess on Wednesday afternoon, her guest of honor being Mrs. Kincaid of Seattle.

HAZELTON

Matthew Green of Glen Vowell, old, blind and deaf, is a patient in the Hazelton Hospital suffering from injuries sustained when a tree fell on him.

The fund for the furnishing of the Nurses' Home here has now reached $2,023. The objective was $1,800.

The road between Hazelton and Smithers is still open and several cars were down here from the Bulkley Valley last week.

Miss Macdonnell and Jack have left for Smithers where they will reside in future.

Mrs. James Turnbull has returned from Cumberland, Vancouver Island, where she went to attend the funeral of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sobey of Wetaskiwin have arrived at Hazelton with the intention of locating in the district.

After visiting at Kitwanga and Kitwancool, Archdeacon G. A. Rix of Prince Rupert will preach in Hazelton on Sunday night.

Miss E. M. Hogan, secretary of the Hazelton Hospital, is visiting with friends in Prince Rupert.

SMITHERS

Another well attended card drive was held in the Rebekah Lodge rooms on Wednesday night, there being eight tables of bridge and four of whist in the play. The first prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. J. N. Carr and H. Gunderson, and second prizes by Mrs. E. Eby and W. Lewis. At whist the first were won by Mrs. F. Watson and G. Orchard with Mrs. B. Raabe second. Dainty refreshments were served before the guests departed for their homes.

W. Aitken, manager of the Hudson's Bay Co.'s Babine post was a business visitor in town on Thursday. Mr. Aitken is busy preparing for his winter work and expects to have an active time of it conducting three fur-buying posts at widely separated points with the mode of travel confined to snowshoes and dog teams.
