REHEARSAL OF JANE WAS FINE

Players Club Tried Out Screaming Farce in Empress Theatre Last Evening

At the Empress Theatre last night the players club had their first theatre rehearsal of "Jane" the screaming farce which they are to put on at the Westholme Theatre Monday night commencing at eight, with Alex. A. Connon, as director. The result exceeded expectations and it is confidently anticipated that with a full dress rehearsal tomorrow in the Westholme for the finishing touches the play will be fully ready for the critics Monday.

The part of Jane is taken by Miss Agnes Donaldson, while William, the man-servant, her husband, is W. H. Walton. Both of these take their parts well and William is a scream throughout. Others in the cast are George Mitchell, J. S. Wilson, L. D Jamieson and the Misses B. Burke, D. Laxton, P. Creighton Florence Aitcheson. The business manager is W. H. P. Pleming.

Tickets have been going off rapidly and by Monday evening the Westholme should be sold out. Proceeds are for the Prince Rupert Museum.

ARMISTICE DANCE HELD AT SMITHERS

Successful Event at Which War Veterans Entertained Guests from Whole Valley

SMITHERS, Nov. 14. — The Armistice Dance given by the G.W.V.A. on Wednesday night in the Town Hall was one of the merriest and largest of dances held in Smithers. The veterans had as their guests, folk from all points of the Bulkley Valley. The hall had been artistically decorated with a large number of flags and red, white and blue streamers and a large committee under Major Gale and Al. Finnerty kept things moving at a lively pace throughout the evening.

The Grey six-piece orchestra provided excellent music and the Newberry Bakery the refreshments.

She Could Never Do The Things Other Girls Did

Miss I. J. Ross, Scollard, Alta., writes:—"I am only twenty years old, but have suffered from heart palpitation and nerve trouble for several years.

I could never do the things other girls did, that is, in the line of sports, skating, etc., and could never depend on myself at work.

About six months ago I began taking and am just twice the girl I was, and can enjoy everything in general life so much more. I am very grateful for what your Pills have done for me."

PARENT-TEACHERS OF TERRACE ACTIVE

Arrange to Purchase Piano and Receive Gift of Stoddart Lectures for the School

TERRACE, Nov. 14.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association Thursday evening, J. M. Hall in the chair, it was decided to purchase a new Weber piano from Pitman's of Prince George for the use of the school. The treasurer reported $175 in the fund toward that purpose.

It was decided to call a meeting November 20 to organize a community Christmas tree similar to last year.

Miss Dobb read an interesting article on the movement towards instituting "good will day" and Miss Kerr delighted the gathering with a violin solo with Mrs. Keith at the piano.

A letter was read from Rev. W. J. Parsons, McBride, in which he said he had received instructions from Mrs. A. Donaghy, who at one time lived here, to present to the association a set of Stoddart's lectures which she had left in Terrace. These are to be placed in the school library and to be the property of the association.

A committee of three was appointed to arrange for the serving of the cocoa in the school at lunch hour.
