Fishermen

DAILY DELIVERY

Phone 81

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port-"Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest"

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

VOL. XLI, No. 227

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS

stimated 50,000

00 damage late when it levelled. issary, kitchen, nt and three Hvo-storey bunkthe Columbia Company mill

Island. Pease, 42-year-old n one of the bunkstored in the bunk-

40 men employed ruction job by anoccupied quarters khouses, which at housed more than hey lost all their built to accommoees working on the 0,000 mill. Some of s were torn down fire-fighting unit to the scene and 0 employees helped mes, which at times t into the air.

ING SAVED

structure — the re--was saved. ce Rupert fire deas asked for assistnt one truck to the Chief Earl Becker

s, telephone superso sped to the scene ines that endangered to the mill were cut lames melted lead iside of the cable. returned to the morning and telemunication was ree fire started, kept from endangering I, although it spread lickly-through the covered about one operty alongside the National Railways

oned

all men were taken bank tellers radio message from se at Thule, Greened up the operation;

last Tuesday when mission to drop sup-British exploring ex-occasional light rain, terday. ge in temperature. therly 20 in exposed elsewhere. High at

Forecast

PATROL ROADS-The United States has serious doubts about the dividends it is receiving for its $3,000,000,000 expenditure on military aid to France and the three associated states of Indo-China. The money is used in the war against the Communist-led Vietminh. American equipment—such as these armored vehicles used to patrol roads and protect Franco-Viet Namese trucks from Communist guerrillas-continues to flow into Indo-China and so far the Southeast Asia country has not fallen to the Reds. But the U.S. is concerned that the smaller Vietminh forces with only a trickle of supplies from the Red Chinese can hold the French and Viet Namese-at bay. (CP PHOTO)

Skeena MP Calls For Thorough Investigation Of Proposal to Use Atlin Waters For Alcoa

Special to The Daily News

ATLIN-The people of northern British Columbia should insist that every aspect of the proposal to use Canadian water power for an Alaskan aluminum smelter should be investigated ber of Parliament for Skeena riding, said at a public meeting here sponsored by the Atlin Board of Trade.

He said many desired projects thoroughly before an agreement might be made to fit into the picture, including the Atlin to

of African jungle animals

their native jungle wilds.

African leopard who is about to become a mama-and she still may, before the train to the boy or girl who submits

the most suitable name for the cub.

Half a Ton of Gold Stolen From Airport

Biggest Gold Theft in Canada Loots $215,000 in Bullion

By The Canadian Press

TORONTO-Half a ton of gold bullion, worth tion was to start but said the about $215,000 has disappeared from an unguarded development hinged on an agreecargo shed at suburban Malton airport terminal of power from Canadian waters. Trans-Canada Air Lines. It is believed the largest there have been announcement, gold theft in Canada. The gold, in six wooden boxes, was part of a shipment of 10 boxes on its way to Montreal. The remaining four boxes went to Montreal on Flight 2 st wind, blowing at scheduled Wednesday night.

Disclosure of the robbery yesterday touched off a continent-wide alarm. Although the shipment vanished late Wednesday, police were not called in until yesterday morning and RCMP were not notified until the afternoon. TCA officials declined to com- view the first zoo on wheels their plant in this province.) ment on the case with the ex- ever to enter Prince Rupert. ception of a brief statement by Dennis Barclay, TCA public re- have visited the train since it lations officer, who said:

cerned, the gold is just missing. say it is not only educational Korea. We have no official knowledge but "most interesting and thrillthat it is stolen, nor do we know | ing" to observe these animals exactly what it's worth."

NO GUARDS The gold was taken to the air--cap for more than port Wednesday afternoon by

The cage was locked with a small padlock but no guards sponsorship of the Prince Ruwere placed in the vicinity. pert Shrine Club. The train had been on the ice- to take more precautions follow- east. crashed. They had last two months at the air ter- tropical and semi-tropical anminal, 18 miles northwest of imals to be seen in the train downtown Toronto. Police said are the world's smallest monapparently nothing had been keys which measure not a foot Kingdom has agreed to buy done and one high official said in length; the baboon with a 115,000,000 bushels of wheat

Thieves had six hours to make which never drinks but dips his was falling over their getaway. Although the de- knuckles in water, B.C. coast this layed 8:10 p.m. flight—on which at a few points in the 10 boxes were consigned interior. Shower arrived at Montreal at 10:45 p.m. continue during the the news that six of the boxes were missing did not reach TCA offices here until 2 a.m. yes-

GOOD SMOKES Sandspit and Prince Canadian production of cigar Quebec accounted for all the and pipe tobacco in 1951.

That's what E. T. Applewhaite Juneau highway and the Hazel- hood accepted. of Prince Rupert, Liberal Mem- ton to Alaska highway.

> "He decried "a dog in the manger attitude" which would refuse to consider any agreement for the utilization of the Atlin waters but also urged that the best possible utilization in Canadian waters should be ascertained and then adhered to.

the subject, Mr. Applewhaite been made to the Dominion government and indicated that con- No FISHING siderable time would elapse before the project became a practical reality.

(The Aluminum Company of America announced last August 23 plans to construct a $400, 000,000 plant in the Taiya Valley near Skagway.

(The announcement gave no date as to when actual constructhere have been no reports that "Without loyalty to an organ-Alcoa has approached either the ization a member is no good to B.C. or Federal governments re- that organization and as mem-

(In Victoria, recently, former lands minister E. T. Kenney, who was instrumental in obtaining water rights for the giant Aluminum Company of Canada project at Kitimat, said he opposed any move to divert water power out of the There is only today and toprovince.

morrow left for those who have (He suggested that if ALCOA not yet seen the interesting train wished to use B.C.'s waters for power that the company build

Mr. Applewhaite reported to the meeting also on the last Several thousand people who session of Parliament at Ottawa and also on his visit to the "As far as the TCA is con- arrived here a week ago today Canadian fighting forces in

He also discussed local affairs, including the Atlin airport, upon which $15,000 is now being spent.

who have been plucked from Before the meeting the Board It is the first time many of Trade tendered a complimenwith regard to the airport and caused an estimated $150,000 sion of his term, and retire to other local matters. The zoo is here under the

Police said they warned TCA leaves Saturday night for the U.K. to BUY

he was "disgusted" with the baby cuddled in her arms and from Canada during the 1952-53 the rare Gibbon ape from Siam crop year under an international wheat agreement, it was announced today.

Figure includes wheat sold in There is Kiliminjaro, the the form of flour.

This is slightly more than 113,000,000 bushels purchased by the United Kingdom under an leaves. If the baby leopard is international wheat agreement born, a $100 bond will be given in the 1951-52 crop year, said Trade Minister Howe in a statement announcing the deal. "It's somewhat lower, however than the total purchases The train opens each day at wheat and wheat flour (by U.K.) from Canada in that year."

Assail Strikers

The Native Brotherhood is blaming the United Fishermen's Union and Allied Workers for a loss of $150,000 which they will not be able to make because the nion has declared any fish caught by natives as

The natives signed a separate agreement with the Fisheries Association Tuesday to go fishing for fall chum,

The UFAWU have been on strike for 19 days because of a fish price dispute, which they rejected and the Native Brother-

Indian fishermen yesterday assailed the striking union for labelling their fish "hot" and added that the union's action "is reprehensible and unsupportable in a democratic com-

said no approach "whatever" had handle the fish if brought into the fish plants.

Yesterday Chief Scow of the Brotherhood in a message to all native fishermen told them not to go out fishing because the union had declared the fish hot and no one would handle it.

Guy Williams, member of the legislative committee of the Native Brotherhood, and spokesman for the group here in a statement at 1 p.m. today

"This was a legitimate agreement as far as our members are concerned.

pany counsel, said evidence presented to the board by the Wicks Plans railways this week has fully garding diversion of Canadian bers that's the position we are shown the need for the $40,000,-000-a-year increase.

"The Native Brotherhood in the past has made tremendous strides for the natives in all

"It should be clearly under- governments-all except Ontarstood to the public that no com- io and Quebec-had entered a Brotherhood.

"We operate under a provin- The provinces did not submit now being considered and will] cial charter. We are not affiliat- any evidence—for the first time be announced shortly, Labor ed with the United Fishermen in postwar rate hearings—and Minister Lyle Wicks said Thursand Allied Workers Union but are to rely on argument later day. in the past we have co-operated today. with them.

"I would like to personally state I do not know whether this co-operation will con-

"As northern fishermen around the vicinity of Prince Rupert and the Queen Charlotte Islands we are not interested in Johnstone Strait prices. $150,000 LOSS

"Our interest is on the Queen Secretary-General Trygve Lie, rescued today by Brinks, Inc. They turned it over bis stone to Mr. Applewhaite Charlotte Islands where the run 56, has decided to step down new confidence in the depart- couver Marine Workers, nomin-Brinks, Inc. They turned it over the depart- couver Marine Workers, nominto TCA cargo handlers who ever seen any of these animals at which president Ted Smith is now on and will soon be over. from his $40,000-a-year United ment by employees, labor un- ated by the left-wingers, met a inistry said it had signed for it and placed it in and it may be some time before in appreciation of the UFAWU in deils of the rescue a wire-netted cage, similar to they will again have such an with regard to the airport and caused an estimated cage, similar to they will again have such an with regard to the airport and caused an estimated cage, similar to they will again have such an with regard to the airport and caused an estimated cage, similar to the six of the caused and caused an estimated cage, similar to the six of the caused and caused an estimated cage, similar to the caused and caused an estimated cage, similar to the caused caused caused caused caused an estimated cage, similar to the caused ca loss to Masset tribe alone. "More than 90 per cent of the crew members of these boats have no source of earnings, prime minister of Norway. whereas most members of the UFAWU are capable of acquir- persons who know the mind of ing other employment for the Norway's former foreign miniswinter months.

"Among those who have ob- 4,000-man UN secretariat since tained employment fishing dur- 1946. ing the summer have been teachers and polisemen. EXTREME HARDSHIP year, but cannot hold public of-"It is only right that John fice until he has been away Public should know or be made from the UN for five years. acquainted with these facts. "Some of our boats have taken on as much as $250 worth of gear and food. They have now all re- 3 Killed at turned to port and have pulled Highway Side

"It will mean extreme hard-MONTREAL (P) - Three pership for Prince Rupert because sons were killed last night when our members have no trades they were hit by a truck as they and there is only a limited repaired a flat tire on their amount of work in this part of automobile at the side of Monthe country during the winter. treal's Metropolitan highway, (Continued on page 6) half a mile from Dorval airport

NIGHT THRESHING-This evening scene is familiar throughout western Canada this month as farmers work overtime harvesting record-breaking grain crops. Here H. Natuk of Lockport, Man., stook-threshes barley into his stationary combine. (CP PHOTO)

Engineers Moot Uniform Registration System For All Canadian Provinces

Shoreworkers also refused to B.C., said Thursday.

per cent increase in freight rates.

He opened the railways final

Trygve Lie

To Retire on

Life Pension

This was disclosed today by

ter. He has been boss of the

When he leaves he will get a lifetime pension of $10,000

of railway evidence.

John L. O'Brien, senior com-

An attempt is being made to | Here to address Prince Rupert | "We want all provinces to have The day after the Brother- institute a uniform system of members of the association, he the same requirements," he said, hood signed the separate agree- registration of professional en- said the matter has been dis- explaining that in B.C. graduate ment with canners, the UFAWU gineers in Canada, Jack Mer- cussed for several years at meet- engineers must have four years' tendermen voted not to handle chant, registrar of the Associa- ings of the Dominion Council but experience before they can be Referring to recent articles on any fish caught by the natives. tion of Professional Engineers of so far nothing definite has been registered with the association, done.

while in Quebec they may register upon graduation. In Ontario, graduates need one year Railway Seeks to Dismiss and in Alberta and Saskatchewan the time limit is two years. Mr. Merchant said B.C. is wil-Motion Against Rate Boost ling to reduce its four-year rule and probably the matter will be threshed out at next year's an-OTTAWA (CP) - Canadian Pacific Railway nual meeting in Edmonton. Mr. Merchant, who was maktoday asked the Board of Transport Commissioners ing his first visit here, outlined to reject a motion from eight provincial governments activities of the association during the past year. He returned calling for dismissal of the application for an eight to vancouver by air yesterday. Neely Moore, vice-president of the northern group, was chairman of the meeting. L. E. (Al) Smith, former divisional engineer for the Public Works Department here, was president last year. He was transferred to Kamloops a month

Attending the meeting were: Harold Lynum and Lloyd Vallee of Terrace, and G. V. Roche, J. D. Morriss, W. R. Meighen, J. H. Shumka, John Wesch, Dick Garrett, Eugene Bartlett, R. C. Tel-argument in the case the day Department VICTORIA (CP)—Changes that panies dictate to the Native motion of non-suit at the close will increase the efficiency of ford and Neely Moore, all of the whole labor department are Prince Rupert. Mosher Heads "There will be nothing spec-efficiency." This week-end Mr. Wicks will TORONTO (P)-A. R. Mosher

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)- speakers.

tire department attend a large dian Congress of Labor. meeting ,possibly with outside will be a great many little

"There will be nothing spectacular," he said, "but there CCL 13th Time, changes that will contribute to white Defeated meet with conciliation officers, today was re-elected for his 13th and later hopes to have the en- term as president of the Cana-

The 71-year-old veteran labor leader met only left-wing oppo-His aim, he said, is placing of sition. William L. White of Vancrushing defeat.

Some day he would like to be prime minister of Norway.

Formal Probe in Ship Sinking

OTTAWA (CP)—Transport Minister Chevrier has ordered a formal investigation into the loss of the Pacific Coastal cruise ship Princess Kathleen in Alaskan waters Sept. 7. The transport department said the investigation under the Canada Shipping Act probably will be held in Vancouver in the near future.

Stolen Gold Bound For U.K.

MONTREAL (CP)---Canada Air Lines officials said today $215,000 worth of gold bullion reported missing from Toronto's Malton airport destined for United Kingdom for trans-shipment to undisclosed destination.