J. T. Phelan, general superintendent of Yukon Telegraphs, and John Dore, district superintendent, returned yesterday afternoon after having made the round trip aboard the Cardena to Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart on a trip of inspection. Mr. Phelan continued through to Vancouver.

A. G. Bowie, telegraph operator at Terrace, is acting as night relief at the Government Telegraph office here for a couple of weeks. Arthur Irvine, who has been taking the work, has returned to Haysport, but will probably report here again when Mr. Bowie goes to Hazelton at the middle of the month. D. C. Schubert is still away on holidays.

Delayed slightly through having a heavy freight cargo to handle at Ocean Falls, C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. Donald, arrived from the south at 11:15 this morning. The vessel loaded paper there for Juneau. A distinct falling off in tourist business was marked on the passenger list of the Prince Rupert. There were only a few Alaska round-trippers, though more came this far to go East by train. There were also a number of local passengers.
