NORMA TALMADGE IN "THE LADY" TONIGHT

Is First a Soubrette and After the War Seeks Night Life of Monte Carlo

Norma Talmadge has a dual role in "The Lady," her new First National picture, at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

She first appears as a pretty soubrette of the year 1900. Surrounded by a double sextette of beautiful Gibson girls, Norma sings the "Floradora" songs of other days and takes part in the scenes of wild gayety which followed the Spanish-American war.

Twenty years pass and Norma is seen as a woman who has passed through the maelstrom of the Great War. For four years she runs a little cafe just behind the battlefront where the troops of many nations take their "petit verre" as they go up into the Valley of Death.

From the heights of London theatrical life, a feted beauty and the toast of all the young bloods of London, Norma descends to the depths with the American and British troops who fought the long fight in the Great War.

She is seen on the edge of the night life of Monte Carlo, with its gaming tables, its beautiful women, its half world, its tragedies, amours and romances.

She is thrown into the sordid life of Marseilles, where the human dregs of all nations mingle in the cafes of the waterfront. And she finally finds peace in a little seaport town of France.

SPORT CHAT

It has now been decided by those in charge of the Junior Football League that the final game of the League will take place tomorrow afternoon between the Booth Memorial School and the High School. Confusion in the league standing had been caused through a game in June between High School and Borden Street School—resulting in a two all draw—having never been officially reported. The situation now is such that should Booth School win or draw tomorrow's game that team will capture the Rochester Shield while, should the High School win, the standing will be even necessitating a play-off. The league standing, officially received, is as follows:

	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Booth School	5	3	1	11
High School	3	3	3	9
Borden Street	3	5	2	8

A team of English International Badminton players will tour Canada this winter, playing in Vancouver on December 18 and 20. The trip has been arranged after months of negotiations between the Canadian Badminton Association and the Badminton Association of England. Sir George A. Thomas will captain the team and matches are already arranged to be played at St. John, Halifax, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Kelowna and Vancouver. The team will consist of J. F. Devlin, holder of the British singles championship; A. K. Jones, holder (with H. S. Uber) of the doubles championship; Sir George Thomas, ex-singles champion; William Swinden, H. R. C. Martin and E. Hawthorn, holders of various championships.

There is a move on foot to start the World Series baseball games earlier in the future than has been the custom. By running the games so late, there is the risk of cold and unpleasant weather. Furthermore, when the pennant winners have been established, usually about two weeks before the World Series commences, interest in baseball becomes dormant in all cities with the exception of the two that will be concerned in the big finals. If the series was started earlier that October 1 it is believed that there would be money for the other fourteen clubs in arranging a week or two of inter-league games.

COLD STORAGE WINS IN BILLIARD MATCH

The second division billiard tournament last night between the Great War Veterans' Association and the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. resulted in victory for the latter by an aggregate score of 661 to 649.

Individual scores were as follows:

J. Judge (G.W.V.A.), 150; J. May (Cold Storage), 119.

W. J. Nelson, 133; W. Long, 150.

G. Fleming, 70; A. Harvey, 150.

Dr. J. A. West, 146; A. McDonald, 150.

J. Howe, 150; H. Parr, 92.

The league standing to date is as follows:

	Games.	Pts.	Aver.
Billiard Parlor	1	742	742
Cold Storage	1	661	661
War Veterans	1	649	649
Grotto	1	581	581
