RUPERT WINS SECOND GAME

Baseall Score on Saturday Afternoon Was 4 to 2

The second baseball game on Saturday afternoon between New Metlakatla and Prince Rupert resulted in another victory for the locals by a score of 4 to 2. It was a somewhat better game than the first of the series, but there was a small crowd in attendance and there will be a financial loss as a result of the bringing to the city of the New Metlakatla team.

Kitcoon, who again pitched for New Metlakatla, seemed better able to hold the locals down, and Schlenker, the Prince Rupert hurler, was not going as strong as he did in the first game. The result was a less one-sided match, which seemed to be appreciated by those who attended. There were only three hits off Schlenker, fielding being the winning factor. The locals got eight hits off Kitcoon. Prince Rupert made six errors and New Metlakatla three.

The game was won for the local team in the fifth inning, when they touched Kitcoon for three safe hits and as many runs.

The score by innings was as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Metlakatla........	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	—2
Prince Rupert..	0	0	0	0	3	1	x	—4

The teams were as follows:

New Metlakatla—Brendible cf; Hewson ss, Edwards c; Buckert 3b, Evans 1b, Leask 2b, Kitcoon p, Williams rf, Hudson lf.

Prince Rupert — Moran ss, Schlenker p, Frizzell lf, Jones 1b, Balfour c, Farquhar 3b, H. Menzies 2b, C. Smith cf, H. Astori rf (W. Mitchell after fourth inning).

There was to have been a third game on Sunday, but rain prevented it. The Metlakatla team returned home yesterday.

CELEBRATION BIG SUCCESS

Trades and Labor Council Yesterday Eclipsed all Labor Day Events of Past

The Trades and Labor Council has been holding Labor Day celebrations here for many years but yesterday's was probably the most successful of them all. Weather was auspicious and the result that there was a great crowd of old and young at the Acropolis Hill grounds. One of the features of the day was the presence of the New Metlakatla native band which dispensed splendid music as the sports were proceeding. The day concluded with a largely attended dance in the Auditorium under the joint direction of the Labor Council and L. J. Marren. The orchestra consisted of Mrs. Russell Ponder, piano; A. Eastman, saxophone; Prof. Pryce, violin, and W. Wilson, drums.

The different athletic events of the day resulted as follows:

ENGLISH TURF EVENT COMING

Next Wednesday the St. Leger to Take Place at Doncaster: Saucy Sue Entered

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 8.—(By Canadian Press)—On Wednesday next the English turf world and British followers of the thoroughbred will turn to watch the struggle at the Town Moor course, Doncaster, for the senior and the last of the five great three-year-old classics, the St. Leger

Questions making this year's St. Leger notable are as follows: Can Saucy Sue, unbeaten champion filly, defeat the leading colts? Will Manna, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby, bring lasting fame on himself and his trainer by winning the mythical "Triple Crown?" What are the chances of A. R. Cox's Picaroon, at the commencement of the season the champion three-year-old, until a mishap to his leg forced his withdrawal from racing and training? Picaroon's start is very problematical, for even if he can stand the hard training, he has much ground to make up, and he has not faced the starting post since his win in the Newmarket Craven Stakes four months ago.

The St. Leger, though lacking by its situation the popularity of the Epsom Derby, is a harder test of the thoroughbred than either the Derby, a mile and a half race, or the Two Thousand Guineas, a mile race. The St. Leger is run over the Town Moor course of one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards. It is, of course, immensely popular in Yorkshire, and the "tykes" walk many miles to see it.

As winner of the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby which with the St. Leger are the three greatest classics for three-year-olds, H. E. Morriss's Manna is the leading contender for the St. Leger stakes, and favorite in the betting at about four to one against. Manna's start this year was at Ascot, when he was quite unexpectedly defeated by Sir John Rutherford's colt Solario, by Gainsborough out of Sun Worship.

Solario and Picaroon are considered by many to be better than Manna. As two-year-olds the three ran in the Middle Park Stakes, Picaroon winning easily Solario second and Manna third. Picaroon was conceded to be the champion, but his unfortunate malady in the spring put him out of the running. Solario has twice headed Manna and at five to one against is next in the betting to the Derby winner, who is a Phalaris-Waffles colt. Picaroon is third favorite, and Saucy Sue Fourth.
