He will employ someone living in the town; and it takes two to build a home. If you spend your money out of town naturally you are helping the other community. Visit our store and we guarantee satisfaction. You get more for your money and in return you get 5 per cent on each dollar. Our system has proved satisfactory to others. Why not try it? ANTI-BRITISH CHINESE MOVE

Money Subscribed in Vancouver and Sent to China to Help Cause

CRITICIZED GOVERNMENT

University Graduate Said to be one of Leaders on This Coast

VANCOUVER, Aug. 28.—Anti-British feeling in Shanghai and other disaffected quarters in China is being fed from Vancouver.

Money and material is being sent to China on every boat from this port, and the efforts being made here to keep the Shanghai anti-British agitation alive are not without official sanction.

Revelations were made today that as far back as June 25 last a meeting was held in the Chinese Benevolent Association rooms here at which the whole question was discussel, and at which steps were taken to organize for the collection of funds to aid the anti-British movement.

Decision to stage a play in the Chinese Theatre on Sunday, July 5 in order to raise money for this purpose was reached, and so great was the pressure brought to bear on all sections of the Chinese community that over $2,000 was raised at this time. Since then regular collectors have been appointed and the movement is spreading.

Consul Implicated

That the June and July meetings had official sanction is apparent from reports in the Canada Morning News, a Chinese Newspaper owned by the Nationalists and published in Vancouver. At the June meeting the Chinese consul, Ho Tsang, who is unable to speak Cantonese, spoke through an interpreter, and thanked his hearers for the money subscribed in the Wong Foon Sing case, and also for their "help in the Shanghai anti-British movement."

The consul informed the meeting that he had that day received a telegram from the Peking foreign office regarding the thirteen demands made by the Chinese government upon the British in Shanghai, and he criticized severely the "unfair immigration law imposed upon the Chinese by the Canadian government."

King Lee Active

It was following this meeting that King Lee, now dividing his time between 10 Pender West and 19 Pender West, came from China on the Empress of Canada and successfully succeeded in getting into Vancouver. Since coming here this man, who is a former Yale graduate and also a General Theological College graduate, has been well supplied with funds, and with Lee Buoi Ding, from Gambier, Ohio, another college educated youth, has been active in organizing the anti-British movement in Vancouver and Victoria.

King Lee has been in Hong Kong and Shanghai for the past nine years, and according to members of the Nationalist movement belongs to the ultra-red wing of that party.

Although both men are alleged to be working in collusion here, Chinese who fear the spread of the movement in Vancouver and Canada generally and are anxious to keep out of the trouble, report that the two men pretend not to know one another. They are credited with being the envoys who harangued the crew of the City of Victoria and induced the Chinese seamen to refuse duty.

Meetings in Chinatown here are growing in numbers and intensity and older members of the community report that there is grave danger of the disaffection in Shanghai becoming apparent here in clashes with white residents if the present propaganda continues, especially with the official aproval it apparently has at the present time.

BARKERVILLE BOASTS INTERESTING RELICS

Also Lady Lives There Who Has Not Been Outside for 51 Years

BARKERVILLE, B.C., Aug. 28.—A visitor to this old gold rush town, now practically forgotten, describes a resident in these words: "A little further up the street from 'Pady's place' is a neatly kept white and blue painted house which is the home of one of the most remarkable characters in all Cariboo. Here lives Mrs. Housser, a hale and hearty old lady of 84, who has not been out of the immediate district of Barkerville for 51 years. In 1867 she came out to Barkerville from Germany, returning there in 1868. She came back to Cariboo in 1874 and with her sister shares the distinction of never having seen a train or street car in her life.

"Across from Kelly's Hotel lives Mrs. Murphy, postmistress and telephone operator of Barkerville. One could spend half a day examining the collection of strange relics she has found in and about Barkerville. Here is a fine old pewter mug whose markings prove that it dated back to the days of Charles I., here a silver teapot and there silver spoons and other trinkets.

VICTORIA HOTELMEN OUT TO GET LICENSES

Petitions Being Circulated With View to Having Plebiscite Very Soon

VICTORIA, Aug. 28.—Victoria, the only large city in British Columbia where the sale of beer by the glass is prohibited, soon will have beer parlors like those in Vancouver, local hotel men predicted today when they launched a petition in favor of a new beer plebiscite.

At a conference with mainland and Island brewers the hotel interests mapped out a vigorous drive for beer. A petition will be circulated immediately under the recent plebiscite order-in-council passed by the provincial government, and beer advocates are confident that it will receive the necessary signatures of forty per cent of the registered voters.

The chief argument to be used in the beer campaign will be that Victoria is losing business through its present dry condition. The moral side of the question it will be urged, already has been determined by the establishment of beer bars in Esquimalt, adjoining the city, where beer drinkers from Victoria can get all the refreshment they want.

As Victoria voted dry by a heavy majority in the last beer plebiscite it is expected that the new beer move will be met with strong opposition.

The New Juvenile Bostonians

Under the Direction of Mrs. E. Lang

In Select Vaudeville Program—New Songs, Dances and Comedy Numbers

Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Broken Laws"

A compelling, tensely dramatic story of the life of to-day. Jazz parties on Christmas Eve — swaying, half-drunken couples slithering around on the polished floor while the children watched wide-eyed from the stairs. Later, her mother's lover—later, his father drinking—the children pitifully young at a notorious roadhouse—the tragedy—manslaughter—the shadow of the chair—a little mother pleading for her son's life—the awakening. A great entertainment with a big moral. Mrs. Wallace Reid in a role which stamps her as one of the screen's greatest artistes.

Notable cast. Mrs. Wallace Reid, Percy Marmot, Ramsey Wallace, Arthur Rankin, Pat Moore, Jacqueline Saunders, Virginia Lee Corbin, Jane Wray.
