LEGION HOLDS CELEBRATION

Gives Banquet and Dance at Terrace to Mark Union of Organization

TERRACE, Dec. 19.— One of the largest banquets ever held here took place when the returned men of the district celebrated the amalgamation of all the different returned soldier organizations in the province under the name of the Canadian Legion. About seventy guests were present in the dining room of the Terrace Hotel with Major Eggleshaw as toastmaster.

The toast list with the proposer first and responder second follows:

"The King."

"Canada," Major Hearne, Rev. T. J. Marsh.

"The Canadian Legion," J. K. Frost, Major Eggleshaw.

"The Ladies," L. H. Kenny, Mrs. J. K. Frost.

"Major J. P. Eggleshaw" (Impromptu), by Major Hearne.

Dancing followed at the G.W.V.A. rooms to Mrs. Attwood's Orchestra. Vocal selections were given by J. Hepburn and Gillis Couture and a humorous reading by Mrs. J. J. Jones.

TERRACE NOTES

At their last semi-monthly meeting the Sons of Canada entertained their wives and lady friends in their club rooms. A mock initiation was carried through. The hosts provided a sumptuous supper after which each lady was called upon to contribute a number to the program all of which numbers were much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Finter and two children of Edmonton who left here about two weeks ago to visit with friends on Douglas Creek at Kalum Lake returned to town last Friday.

J. Calhoun, manager of Canada Products Co., Usk, left Terrace on Saturday morning by canoe for some point down the river from which he could reach the coast by train. Mr. Calhoun hopes to arrive in Minnesota in time to spend Xmas. with his family. The canoe was piloted by Dave MaWhinney of Newtown.

The continued heavy rains of the past few weeks have played such havoc with the roads that log hauling has been out of the question and the sawmill here has been closed for the past week. Between the absence of trains and the ceasing of the hum of mill machinery, every day seems like Sunday, and everyone is wondering just what the right time is.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Raven, Major Hearne and R. Eaton, of the Lakelse hatchery staff came to Terrace for the banquet and dance Friday night. They made the trip by motor car, something quite unusual at this time of year—snow-shoes being the usual method. They report that water in the small creeks around the lakes was exceptionally high and at times the hatchery dams were in danger of being washed out.

There was born in Terrace on Monday, December 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hipp—a daughter.

The monthly meeting of the Terrace and Kitsumkalum Parent Teachers' Association was held in the school house on Thursday evening, December 10, with 2nd Vice-President Mrs. Geo. Little, presiding. After a short business meeting Miss Dobb gave a brief, but interesting, synopsis of a book on Home Education.

A meeting of the ladies of the district who are eligible to join the Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was called for Wednesday afternoon, December 9, but owing to the lack of mail service, there was no copy of the constitution available, and aside from appointing Mrs. J. K. Frost—the president, for the coming year, no other business was conducted. Another meeting is to be he held Tuesday afternoon, January 5.

W. T. Treston and Dave Wilson made the trip in from Kalum Lake at the week end.

A. J. White, Vancouver mining engineer and D. W. Davis and J. M. Hoar of the Hopper Davis Mining Co. at Kalum Lake, arrived in town on Wednesday and when they found there were no trains, left by speeder for Pacific and thence on to the south via Lucerne.

J. McConnell who has spent the last few months on the prairies, arrived home on Friday night. He hiked every part of the road at this end.

The party of timber cruisers who came from the south about a month ago and proceeded to Kalum Lake to cruise the timber limits of the Kitsumkalum Timber Co. arrived back in town on Friday.

LADIES' GUILD OF TERRACE CHURCH ELECTS OFFICERS

TERRACE, Dec. 19. — The Ladies' Guild of Knox United Church held their annual meeting on Thursday afternoon at the church.

The officers appointed for the coming year are:—

President—Mrs. Keith.
Vice-president—Mrs. Souci.
Secretary—Mrs. Sundal.
Treasurer—Mrs. Barker.
Work convener—Miss Kerr.
Work treasurer—Mrs. W. E. Smith.

After the meeting tables were laid for supper to which the gentlemen of the congregation had been invited to partake with the ladies and a pleasant social hour was spent.

The next meeting of the Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. D. McKinnon on January 7.

FIRST WEDDING AT ALICE ARM

Marshall Smith of the Mining Camp Married to Mrs. A. P. Sargent

ALICE ARM, Dec. 19.—"That's the first time I ever heard that tune in Alice Arm," said the oldest prospector present, "what is it?" And he was quite right, for it was Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and it was played at the first and only wedding that Alice Arm has ever had. To be sure we have had brides, lots of them. But they were always married in Anyox, or Prince Rupert, or Vancouver, or somewhere else, and brought in. Just why there has not been a wedding here before, maybe the oldest prospector could not give a reason. It is not because there is a dearth of would-be grooms, for this camp is long on eligible bachelors, and if you will look close enough you will find "Barkis is Willin'" written above all their doors. Any way it just never happened before.

The bride of this first wedding was Mrs. A. P. Sargent, second daughter of A. Brockbank, of Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire, England, whose marriage to Marshall Smith of Alice Arm was solemnized at the residence of John Anderson on the evening of December 14, the Rev. C. D. Clarke of the Union Church of Anyox officiating. The bride was given away by John Anderson, Harry Fowler supporting the groom.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Alice Arm Hotel, thirty-six guests from Anyox and Alice Arm sitting at the festive board. After the wedding supper, the evening was given over to dancing. Hutchinson's orchestra surpassed itself in presenting an excellent dance program, and the first Alice Arm wedding was voted a grand success.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Alice Arm. Mr. Smith being interested in mining in the camp.

SMITHERS

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Greenhalgh, who have spent the past several months visiting with friends in England, returned to their home here, on Sunday.

"Duke" Harris of New Hazelton was a business visitor in town the fore part of the week. Mr. Harris has been making shipments of ore from the Silver Cup claims, but has closed down the mine for the winter months and expects to start again in April with renewed energy.

The final games of the G.W.V.A. cribbage tournament were played this week and resulted in the first prize of a turkey going to A. F. Dixon with Dune McRae as runner up.

Kenneth Warner of the public works department, Burns Lake, is spending a few days in town.

Another side line was added to his many farming activities on Wednesday morning when Geo Oulton, proprietor of the Woodlawn dairy farm, received a shipment of two silver-black foxes from a fox farm on Prince Edward Island. Mr. Oulton's father and Mr. Dalton were the pioneers of the fox-raising industry in Canada.

The Babine Indians who have been spending a few days in town disposing of their winter catch of fur and getting supplies, left for home on Thursday morning, making the trip over the new road they built this summer. Father Aylard accompanied them back and will spend the holiday season with the tribes at the head of Babine Lake.

One of the local Indians was peddling a live cross-fox in town this week. He had caught it in a trap and it was only slightly injured and had became quite tame.
