"Janice Meredith"

An epic of the American Revolution.

A story for young and for old.

The inspiring tale of a brave girl's struggle between love and honor. A real plot of strong dramatic appeal and of notable historic value. The stirring days of 1776. Superlative entertainment with many striking scenes. Everyone should see: The Boston Tea Party, Paul Revere's ride, Lexington, Patrick Henry, Washington crossing the Delaware, the Battle of Trenton, Franklin at the Court of Versailles, Valley Forge, Lord Howe's Ball, Yorktown, Mount Vernon, the Surrender of Cornwallis, etc., etc.

A photo-play surpassing in dramatic scope, in magnitude, in comedy and beauty, anything previously attempted by Miss Davies.

Superb cast of principals:

Holbrook Blinn, Maclyn Arbuckle, Joseph Kilgour, George Nash, George Siegmann, Tyrone Power, W. C. Fields, Edwin Argus, Hattie Delaro, Princess de Bourbon, Helen Lee Worthing, May Vokes, 28th Infantry Regiment, Harrison Ford as Charles Fownes, and Marion Davies as Janice Meredith.

FINE CONCERT LAST EVENING

Pupils at Catholic School Did Themselves Proud at Recital Marking Close of Term

The term's activities at the Catholic School closed with a concert last night that reflected great credit on the work of the Sisters of St. Joseph and the ability of the many children who participated. The young performers did their parts beautifully and the costumes were a feature. Perhaps the outstanding number on the program was the play which brought the recital to a close but the old-fashioned minuet by several girls was also an item worthy of special mention. The choruses were excellent. At the close Bishop Bunoz congratulated the children and their teachers on the excellent showing they had made.

Dr. F. P. Kenny presided and the program was as follows:
