LEGISLATURE NOT INTERFERING WITH KLAN CHINESE SITUATION ABLY EXPLAINED AT MEETING OF LOCAL SERVICE CLUB

C. P. Coles Meets Grain Board and Discussion of Situation Follows

At a meeting of the grain board, held in the City Hall last night, M. P. McCaffery, chairman, presiding, C. P. Coles, head of the C. P. Coles Corporation Ltd., grain brokers, who has signified his intention of opening an office here in the near future in connection with business for the new elevator, was introduced to the members of the board at present in the city.

Having been introduced by the chairman, Mr. Coles spoke optimistically of the future of this port as a grain shipping center and prophesied that grain would be shipped through Prince Rupert's elevator in January, in fact, his firm had already received inquiries from shippers in this connection. His experience in the grain business extended over some thirty years on the Pacific coast and he was interested in establishing himself in the grain business in the city. He was willing to become a member of the local Grain Board and give the board the benefit of his knowledge. If it were possible he and his associates were willing to lease the elevator.

The idea of Mr. Coles becoming a member of the local board was concurred in by S. D. Macdonald, vice-chairman; Ald. Geo. Casey and Olof Hanson, if, at the conclusion of present negotiations, the outcome of which would be known next Monday, the board was to continue to function.

J. P. Babcock, provincial commissioner of fisheries, termed the treaty the most commonsense action with reference to the fisheries ever taken by the two countries and believed it would be the foundation of investigation of the entire marine food supply of the Pacific coast.

SEATTLE, Nov. 26.—Considerable progress has been made by the International Fisheries Commission halibut investigation committee, William F. Thompson, British Columbia director of the committee, informed the gathering yesterday. They had tagged a large number of halibut as a means of determining whether they migrate from one bank to another.

Illuminating Address on China Given by Canon Gould at Gyro Luncheon Yesterday Afternoon

"There are tremendous influences at work today moulding the destiny of China and, while the present situation may appear to be full of sinister possibilities, I am inclined to believe that the nation will come out of her present difficulties as one of the greatest stabilizers of human progress and one of the greatest competitors in the world's pathway of commerce."

Such was the conclusion of an illuminating address delivered before the Gyro Club yesterday afternoon by Canon

Gould, general secretary of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada and a man whose church experience has led him into an intimate acquaintanceship with China as well as many other foreign lands.

Canon Gould shed a great deal of light in the course of his address on present conditions in the great Oriental nation and causes that had actuated them.

Present civil strife in the country was explained by him in a most interesting and informative manner and he dealt to a great extent with the relation of Great Britain to China and the reasons that had caused China to look upon the British Empire not only as potential cause for its present ills but also as the main means of their ultimate removal.

His subject being "Nationality," Canon Gould took as his example of that subject the nation of China and his discourse was confined to that country.

Anti-British Feeling

Two years ago, Canon Gould stated, as a member of the Canadian Famine Relief Committee, it had been his privilege to visit the province of Honan, one of the great tactical and strategic centres of the nation of today as it had been in ancient times. In order to give background to show the fact that anti-British feeling in China of today was of very recent growth, Canon Gould went at some detail into a description of the surroundings on the occasion of his visit.

"China represents," the speaker declared, "one of the greatest reservoirs of human strength, power and intellect to be found on the face of the globe. As the country is really of such close geographical proximity to us here on the Pacific coast, its problems are something that concern us intimately and will concern us more intimately as time advances."

The amendment was moved by G. F. Davie, Conservative member for Cowichan-Newcastle and Victoria Ouldm, Liberal member for Vancouver and it definitely killed the Browne resolution which asked the Federal authorities to bar Klan organizers from Canada.

First Payment Completed on Whalen Pulp & Paper Company by Royal Securities and Peabody

(Special to Daily News)

VANCOUVER, Nov. 26.—Representatives of the first mortgage bondholders of the Whalen Pulp and Paper Company yesterday paid into court here $150,000, the balance of the $250,000 to close the deal as far as the first payment is concerned for the purchase of the properties of the company including the pulp mill, saw mill and pulp leases at Swanson Bay.

It is expected the money will leave the court again Monday to liquidate the accounts of the receiver managing the Swanson Bay operations.

Within two weeks L. W. Kilham, president of the Royal Securities Corporation, who is associated with Peabody, Hough-telling & Co. in the purchase of the Whalen property, is due here to look over the situation with a view to determining when and where operations will begin.

While there is a talk of shutting down the Swanson Bay operations altogether, the pulp leases which go with the plant might lapse if operations were not continued.
