CALLIES HAD EASY VICTORY

Defeated Sons of England in Football Game by 4 to 1

The Callies were the winners again last evening in the football match with the Sons of England, the score being 4 goals to 1.

The Sons of England had a new man as goalie and his work was entirely satisfactory but their forwards and backs were not equal to the aggressive play which the Callies put up. The Callies team took the field in a reorganized form which did not work out as well as expected and the opinion seems to be that the players will do better by playing in their old positions. However, at no stage of the game from the scoring of the first goal until the final whistle, were the Sons able to threaten their opponents with defeat. In the first half the Callies played up hill. The Sons opened the scoring through Hanson and S. Currie equalized for the Callies with a free kick. In the second period, with positions reversed on the field, the Callies added three more and took a stronger hold on the city championship. The scores were McDougall 2, and Alex. Mitchell 1.

Tom Jones was referee, and A Clapperton and J. Johnston acted as linesmen. The teams lined up as follows:

Sons of England: Howlett; R. Howe and G. Howe, Dickens, Bales and Waugh; Farquhar, Anderson, Johnson, Hanson and Cameron.

Callies: Eddie McLean; Hugh Hamilton and M. Andrews; J. Harris, S. Currie, and R. Woods; J. Hamilton, W. Mitchell, D. Scott, R. McDougall and A. Mitchell.

Standing to date:

| | W. | D. | L. | Pts. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Callies | 4 | 0 | 0 | 8 |
| G. W. V. A. | 2 | 1 | 1 | 5 |
| S. O. E. | 1 | 1 | 3 | 3 |
| Cold Storage | 0 | 2 | 3 | 2 |

Sport Chat

Baseball fans would welcome a return game between Rotary and Gyro. There are a lot of things to be settled, and one is why can't Jarvis McLeod and Consul Wakefield occupy the third sack at the same time? They both got there and if allowed to come home would have tied the score.

Geo. Bryant, too, was hitting on all fours as he over-ran second base. Perhaps a bigger sack would accommodate George next time so that it would reach half way over to third base. That Texas Leaguer which Geo. Munro knocked out is only a sample of his bag of tricks. Watch him in action again!

Perhaps it was the coaching of the Gyros in the early part of the game which was weak. Manager Eddie Mann is a regular Connie Mack on the sidelines, only Eddie forgot and tried to conduct the game from inside the diamond.

Robertson tried some big league stuff with his bunting and made a fine sacrifice. It is said McGraw has asked for his release from the Royal Bank. Consul Wakefield skipped from first to second like a two-year-old. That is not all he can do in a ball game, either.

Two bank managers on one team and a couple of lawyers besides ought to settle the matter without any further argument. The court is adjourned sine die. Bill Nelson is sort of peevish at Eddie for being yanked so unceremoniously. Bill claims the longer he plays the wilder he gets, which of course may be taken several ways. Charlie Starr thought he was in the fish exchange when he yelled "How many chickens?" Who was it that tried playing the grand stand as well as the ball and got away with it, too? Dr. Grant nearly forgot himself once or twice and thought it was the Callies he was rooting for. McNaughton for pep. No wonder Mac is scheduled for every school teacher party or personally conducted tour.
