CHANGE OF COLOR ARMY UNIFORM

This is Contemplated in United States on Account of Khaki Shortage

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. — A careful survey of American resources for the manufacture of khaki breeches has convinced army officials that if it became necessary to put a force of two million men into the field in less than eight months, most of them would have to fight in their shirt tails.

Faced by this appalling possibility, the industrial mobilization wing of the national defense planning machinery started a study of its own. It found that it would be entirely possible to completely uniform two million men from head to foot in fifteen days, provided blue cloth instead of khaki was used.

The trouble with the khaki outfit is that not enough cloth of that color is in ordinary civilian use. There are ample stocks of blue and gray, both wool and cotton fabric. The result has been the working out of a tentative blue training uniform which would be supplied in ample volume for a mobilization, to be discarded as units completed their preliminary preparation and moved out for final training near the zone of operations.

By that time complete khaki outfits with tan leather trappings would be ready for them, giving them the necessary degree of low visibility in the field. The contemplated blue training uniforms would consist of a four button blouse, dressed with red shoulder knots to give a military touch, blue cloth overseas caps; blue breeches, tan canvas leggings of the facing variety and black shoes. Tan shoes would be preferable, but the sur-

The matter has not passed as yet beyond a study stage in the War Department.

FLOUR PRICE IS ON RISE

Eggs Are Down on Account of Mild Weather—Tangerines Almost Over

Flour has advanced 50 cents per barrel recently and the present outlook portends that the price will continue to creep up gradually. Consequent upon the rise in flour, wheat and wheat products have also advanced. Wheat has advanced 20 cents per 100 pounds or $4 per ton.

Eggs are down 10 cents per dozen due to the mild weather and the excess number of pullets coming in. Butter, lard and cheese prices remain firm.

Cauliflower will soon be a thing of the past also bothhouse tomatoes are pretty nearly finished.

Jap oranges are practically over and the last shipment of the season is on the way. This fruit will be higher in price probably selling at around $1.00 and $1.10 per box.

Sugar is steady and from present indications the sugar market will remain firm for some time.

From present indications the tea and coffee market is going to advance rapidly, due, it is thought, to an over-estimate of the crop.
