Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters Christmas Tree Monday evening at 7.30. All Knights and Sisters' families invited.

Capt. Gus Foellmer, well known coast skipper, is in command of the big tug Pacific Monarch this winter. His regular post is with the Hudson Bay Co. on its trading vessels.

Union freighter Chilkoot, Capt. C. B. Smith, arrived in port at 2.20 o'clock this morning and proceeded to the dry dock to unload machinery for the Ward Electric Company.

Thomas Craig and Claude Hodges appeared before Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning on charges of intoxication and were each fined $25 or, as an alternative, 30 days imprisonment.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, Capt. Cliffe, arrived in port from the south last night at 11.30 o'clock and sailed this morning at 11 o'clock on her return to Vancouver and way ports. Passengers going south on the vessel included L. Goodwin and E. Lewis for Ocean Falls.

At 8 o'clock Thursday night considerable alarm was caused but little damage was done when oil on the floor of the furnace room in the basement of the convent caught fire. The fire department was called to the scene and the flames were quickly extinguished through the use of chemicals.

C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. H. Nedden, sailed for Vancouver yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The passenger list included H. S. Creelman, H. E. Walberg, Mrs. S. Stewart, A. Craig, J. Johnston, Mr. Hall, C. Bell, C. Hearns, Mr. and Mrs. Final, A. C. Knight, Miss Anderson, Mr. Williams, R. C. Scott and M. Meilson.

C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel will sail from here on her return south by the same route at 8 o'clock. The John brought a few passengers and considerable freight including coal for the dry dock and machinery for the elevator.

The Owls' Club held a very successful dance in the Emad Hall on Christmas Eve. A bountiful turkey supper was served after which dancing was thoroughly enjoyed to snappy music furnished by Hammond's orchestra until the early hours of the morning. Vic Rogers, who had general charge of arrangements and was responsible for the success of the evening, acted as master of ceremonies.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Salvation Army wishes to heartily thank everyone who by thought and deed contributed to make the Christmas Dinner so successful and also those who so kindly assisted with the serving.
