SURPRISE PARTY ON MR. AND MRS. IVERSON

A surprise party took place last night at the home of Mr and Mrs Jack Iverson when practically all the members of Valhalla Lodge gathered at his residence on Seventh Ave. The president of the organization, on behalf of the members, presented Mr. and Mrs. Iverson with a waffle iron as a wedding present. In doing so Mr. Ackerberg made a neat speech and this was followed by a number of other speeches and much merriment prevailed. The visitors passed a pleasant time singing and other occupations.

MASS ON TRAIN FOR PILGRIMS

Canada.

Chapel for Mass

Another unique feature of the special train which carries the pilgrims eastward is a special chapel car in which mass is being celebrated daily during the journey. Yesterday morning at Armstrong, Ontario, the train was halted for two hours while everyone aboard assisted in the celebration of mass. Last night at Hearst, Ontario, another halt was made, while all parties took part in religious celebrations in the evening.

Welcomed in Winnipeg

In Winnipeg the Saskatchewan and Alberta members of the party under the auspices of L'Association Catholique Franco Canadienne de la Saskatchewan were welcomed by the executive and members of L'Association D'Education Canadienne Francaise du Manitoba and taken first on a journey by street car through the business section of the city, and later to the parliament buildings where an official welcome to Manitoba was extended by Premier John Bracken and Hon. P. Talbot, with M. Herbert of Gravelbourg and M. G. R. Broudeur of Prince Albert replying for the visitors.

Later the tourists were taken to St. Boniface College and cathedral where they were extended an official welcome to the Cathedral city. In the evening their compatriots of Manitoba entertained the visitors at a banquet in the Fort Garry Hotel, when under the presidency of M. J. A. Cusson of St. Boniface they were extended a further welcome by M. A. Fremont, editor of La Liberta, Manager Brodeur replying for the visitors. Again after their departure, radio was brought into play, and a further message of "Bon Voyage and Joyeouse Noel," was sent over the ether to their radio equipped train.

At Ottawa

This evening the tourists will arrive in Ottawa where they are to be entertained at the University and conducted on a tour of the parliament buildings where it is expected they will be welcomed either by the prime minister or one of the members of his cabinet and the party will leave Tuesday for Montreal, afterwards going to Ste. Anne de Beaupre for Christmas Eve and returning to Montreal on the afternoon of Christmas Day.
