Mutual eulogies will not meet the situation--practise not preaching is needed

VANCOUVER, July 28.—"There is no use living in a fool's paradise," said Lord Burnham, chairman of the Imperial Press Conference, when interviewed here yesterday regarding Empire conditions. "We have got to face the facts," he continued. "After-dinner speeches about the solidarity of the Empire are very interesting and delightful but we have got to have something more tangible than mutual eulogies. We have got to get down to business and practise a little of what we preach. There is no getting away from it; conditions in the Old Country are
