BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

WERE MARRIED SATURDAY EVE.

Mrs. Kathleen Roy Became Bride of Charles L. Youngman, Rev. Walter Allen Officiating

An interesting wedding took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Parry, 632 Sixth Avenue West, when two well known residents of this city, Mrs. Kathleen Roy and Charles L. Youngman, were united in marriage by Rev. Walter Allen. The home was especially decorated for the occasion and the ceremony took place under a beautiful floral wedding bell in the presence of some fifty guests.

The bride was attended by Mrs. L. R. Parry as matron of honor, the former wearing a beautiful gown of blue grey crepe-de-chine and the latter a handsome creation of pale pink beaded silk. The groom was attended by Robert James. "The Wedding March" was played by Mrs. J. Gawthorn.

After the ceremony there was a wedding supper at which the toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mayor Newton, the groom responding suitably. Playing, dancing and singing was then enjoyed until the early hours of the morning, the festivities taking on a dual aspect after midnight when the seventeenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Beale was celebrated. They were presented by Mrs. Parry, on behalf of Mayor Newton, with a silver cruet set. A toast to Mr. and Mrs. Beale was proposed by W. E. Denning.

In the course of the evening's festivities, there were solos by Tommy Black, Robert James and Frank Morris as well as community singing. Mrs. Gawthorn presided at the piano.

Many lovely gifts for Mr. and Mrs. Youngman were displayed including a handsome antique china tea set which was the gift of the Great War Veterans' Association of which the groom is an active member.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngman, who have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends, are taking up their residence in the Rand Block.

TERRACE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pohle have moved their household effects and stock from Carnaby to Terrace and are now occupying the house recently vacated by Mrs. Lazelle, she having moved into "Grandma" Little's cottage.

Jas. Richmond left on Saturday night's train for Hazelton.

An especially large congregation was present at the Easter services in the Anglican church on Sunday morning.

Loran T. Kenney arrived on Friday morning to spend a holiday at the homes of his brothers, L. H. and E. T. Kenney.

Mountain View Rebecca Lodge held a very successful sale of home cooking and afternoon tea on Saturday in the Progress Hall. The home cooking tables were presided over by Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Aldous and Mrs. Mills, while Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. E. T. Kenney and Mrs. J. Warren had charge of the tea tables. The sale attracted a large crowd and the many good things offered for sale were quickly bought up, while the tea tables were well patronized all afternoon. The lodge funds were increased to the extent of about $38.00.

E. Woodworth returned on Saturday night to his home in Smithers.

Tennis enthusiasts are again on the job and have the court all cleared off and in fine shape for the season's play.

Cy and C. Thomson arrived from Prince Rupert on Saturday night's train.

Her Liver Was Bad And She Felt Tired and Depressed

Mrs. M. Siefert, Grosswerder, Sask., writes:—"I was greatly disturbed with pains in my liver, and felt tired and depressed most of the time. One day I read about and the next time I went to town I bought four vials of them.

Milburn's

LAXA-LIVER PILLS

I have used them regularly, and after two months' use I feel like an entirely different woman.

Now, I always recommend them to any of my friends who are troubled as I was."

There's only one "Laxa-Liver Pill", and that's the one put up, for the past 32 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

QUIETLY WEDDED HERE LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Jennatt Dellaronde of Vancouver Becomes Bride of Paul Gerhard Ludburg

The marriage took place quietly at 9 o'clock last night in the nited Church Parsonage, Rev. G. G. Hacker officiating, of Mrs. Jennatt Dellaronde and Paul Gerhard Ludburg. The groom is a pioneer cook of this city and district, having been here since railway construction days. The bride arrived last night on the steamer Cardena from Vancouver. They will take up their residence in Prince Rupert.

STAN. NEWMAN COMING HERE

British Professional Billiardist to Give Exhibition in City This Week

Stanley Newman, the British professional billiard player, who has been touring Canada, will arrive here on Wednesday and will appear on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights in exhibition matches in connection with the opening of the new Grand Terminal Billiard Club, formerly the Empress Theatre. He will be accompanied on his visit here by Mr. Hedron of Vancouver, western manager of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co.

Newman, who is 27 years of age and a younger brother of Tom Newman, British champion, has made during his recent tour of Canada breaks of 751 and 735 and made one break of 485 off the red ball alone. He has easily defeated all Canadian opponents after giving them handicaps. He played and won a match easily at Vancouver after giving Jack McMillan, the former Canadian champion, a start of 2,500 in an 8,000 match.

After his visit here, Newman will return to England by way of the Panama Canal. He will return south on the Prince Charles next Monday morning.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS HEAR EASTER MUSIC

Ladies' Music Club, With Outside Assistance, Gave Program Yesterday Afternoon

Patients at the Prince Rupert General Hospital were yesterday afternoon treated to a recital of Easter solos and music under the auspices of the Ladies' Music Club, the program having been arranged by Mrs. Jarvis McLeod and Mrs. J. D. Westenhaver.

The members of the club taking part in the program were Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. H. C. Fraser, Mrs. R. A. Harlow, Mrs. C. E. Cullen, Mrs. Rolf Walker, Mrs. Hubert Ward, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, and Miss Catherine Jones. Artists assisting the club were Charles and Will Balagno, A. Clapperton, John E. Davey and A. J. Lancaster.

At the close of the recital, the thanks of the hospital were expressed to the Music Club by President S. K Campbell.

NEW METHOD PLANNED FOR PAYING TEACHERS ACCORDING TO ABILITY

A Canadian board of education is considering a new method of rating teachers, adjusting their pay to their efficiency. Under the proposed system a teacher would be rated 20 per cent for personality, which includes character, health, voice, dress, sympathy, tact, self-control, energy, ambition, sense of humor, optimism, initiative and leadership. Another 20 per cent would be given for scholarship and accuracy; 20 per cent for teaching and management; 10 per cent for teaching skill with interesting methods; 10 per cent for impartiality; 10 per cent for interest in homes and future of pupils and 10 per cent for participation in community life. The plan would drop teachers who rate below 65 two years in succession, give no annual pay increase to teachers rating below 70, and give no permanent positions to substitutes rating lower than 70.
